SEELEY'S BAY SENIORS

On April 25th, 24 seniors sat down to a pot luck dinner. We had our draw on the new quilt with the winner being Jane Eby of Seeley's Bay. Ernest Grisby brought brochures on different trips that we could take with the Gananoque Seniors. Our afternoon wound up with a few games of cards. May 9th, we had our business meeting. The meeting opened with the Lord's prayer. There were 15 members present. Minutes were approved as read and correspondence was read. There was a letter from Brockville informing us of the Zone Rally June 18th. Freda also wanted to know if anyone was interested in the Moon Walk. It was moved that we write a letter to the Legion concerning a fire door. The treasurer's report was adopted. Following adjournment lunch was served.

Gladys Webb gave an excellent report of Conference. We were reminded to mail our signed Amnesty Cards. We were asked to supply blankets to Inuits. The UCW of United Church will celebrate their 25th Anniversary this year. Business meeting adjourned. Jean Atkinson, our guest speaker, spoke on Indian spirituality - in nature, respecting land and all products, living in harmony - sharing with everyone - until the white man's coming changed all this. She also spoke about her visitations with people in the local prisons. She feels that alcohol or drugs were responsible for almost 100% of Indians being imprisoned. A social time followed.

SEELEY'S BAY UCW

Valera Hartley welcomed 19 members to our May meeting, held as usual in the C.E. room. The devotional was taken by Gladys Webb - her subject being "Home & Family." Minutes were read and approved. Plans were made to go to Olivet Church on May 7th as guests of Olivet UCW for lunch and a special meeting when Moira Duffy was to speak on "Bridge House" on Rideau St., Kingston. Card report was given by Hilda. A gratifying amount of money was raised from catering to the Farmers' Banquet. A flower committee was appointed to provide flowers each Sunday in the sanctuary. Advance plans were made for the fall Turkey Supper. We were reminded of our Bake sale and Bazaar to be held May 10th. It was moved that we cater to an August wedding. Offering was received and dedicated. Roll call was answered with "Favorite Flower".
