CHURCH ST., WESTPORT

HARLEM/CHANTRY U.C.W.

Mrs. Margaret Cripps hosted the June 4 meeting with Mrs. Nancy Wykes as president.

Mrs. Alice Eyre conducted the Worship Service, "No Time Like The Present"; Hymn "Take Time To Be Holy" was sung. Roll call was answered by 17 members with a fact on Canadian History. Minutes of the April & May meetings were read and approved. Offering received and dedicated. Cards were signed for our shut-ins. 19 Hospital and 39 home visits had been made with 30 books read.

An invitation to the Launching party for the book "My Own Four Walls" on June 14 was read. A donation, 2¢ for each chair in your home, was collected for the June project. The meeting closed with the Benediction after which refreshments were served. A vote of thanks was given to the hostess and directors.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ellieda Dunkeld on Sept. 3/85

PHILIPPSVILLE W.I.

The May meeting was opened with the Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. Following Roll call, standing committees presented their meeting plans. At noon, everyone enjoyed a T.V. dinner, dessert, cheese and coffee. then back to work to complete planning for next year's meetings. It is hoped to present some interesting meetings in the months to come.

The group is looking for new members and visitors are always welcome.

The meeting adjourned with a vote of thanks by Thelma Stevens to Marion Stone for a pleasant and productive meeting.
