PHILIPSVILLE OUTREACH NEIGHBOURS MEALS-ON-WHEELS

June 4/85 was our first attempt and all were grateful that the weather was sunny and fine. Marion Stone had been able to cook the chickens out of doors. The menu included Bar-b-que Chicken, scalloped potatoes, mixed vegetables, jello, buns, a choice of pie, apple juice and tea. Meals were prepared for 26 and after everyone had eaten the most enjoyable meal, a sing-song of old favourites was conducted.

After tables had been cleared, many joined in for games of euchre, scrabble etc. while others just had a good visit. Everyone agreed that they had had a most enjoyable time and looked forward to the next big event.

A donation was taken and everyone was asked to write down what they thought the fee should be for this type of event. Once the price is decided, all members will be informed. It is hoped for another good turn-out for the next meeting.
