French Tarts by Jo Gosling - If you enjoy pies, sweet or savory, then this book will give you some excellent ideas for those next "pie-baking days.

Dallas by Laura Van Wormer - the complete Ewing Family saga, right to 1985. A must for Dallas fans.

In a Certain Light by Karen Brownstein - Wife abuse is becoming more prevalent..or is it that it is becoming more public? This novel explores the terror of domestic violence and its effect on all family members.

Red Crystal by Clare Francis - a political thriller, set in England and crossing the continent. Filled with exciting characters and very tense moments.

Depths of Glory by Irving Stone - the master of fictional biography gives us another fascinating study, this time Stone takes us into the life of Camille Pissarro, the renegade artist who literally founded the group known as the French Impressionists.

The Time Returns by Alexandra Ripley - a superbly crafted novel of the 15th century. Explores the lives of the Medici and the Pazzi families using the backdrop of the romantic splendour of Florence.

These, plus many more recent releases are available through your branch of the Union Library System.

TEENS! PARENTS! TEENS! PARENTS! TEENS! PARENTS! PREPARING FOR, AND SURVIVING ADOLESCENCE

We believe that family life can work!

Surviving adolescence is possible for both teens and the parents of teens. Help to minimize the usual conflict is coming to our community in the form of a "Family Life Seminar" to be held Sat. Nov. 16/85 at 7:30 p.m. at Sweet's Corners Public School.

Bob Johnston, now a family life educator, holds a Masters degree from the University of Toronto. He has spent 19 years counseling couples and families. Rev. Johnston is a frequent guest on radio and television and has recently completed a book on Canadian family life. Bob and his wife Marie, a public health nurse, have conducted many seminars on marital and parent-child relationships.

These seminars provide practical, down-to-earth teaching on family life. Fundamental principles are communicated through humourous skits, dialogue and discussion. Their approach will appeal to everyone between the ages of eight and eighty eight. Teens should come to learn how to educate their parents. Parents of teens, and of those about to enter adolescence, cannot afford to miss this delightful evening.

Plan to attend! Family life can work!
