CRONK

We would like to thank Drs' Murty, Shiazaki, staff of Smiths Falls Hospital for the best of care Frank received. Thanks to Rev. Hands & Rev. Thomas for prayers that have been answered and thanks to all our friends & relatives & neighbours for cards, calls & gifts.
Frank & Josephine Cronk

THE COMMITTEE OF THE LYNDHURST SANTA CLAUS PARADE wishes to extend their sincere thanks & appreciation to all who helped make this year's event such a great success. Those who entered floats, the bands, Wills P.A. system, the judges and to the ladies who prepared the lunch and to all others who helped in any way, including Santa...thank you.

THE SEELEY'S BAY & DISTRICT LIONS CLUB wish to thank those residents of Seeley's Bay & area who contributed to the recent Tri-County Canadian Diabetes Association Drive for funds, and also to express the Lions appreciation to the pupils of Sweets Corners School for their help in collecting food items for the Christmas Food Baskets to be delivered to various families in the area.

Thank You

While the Lantern normally goes to press on the last Tuesday of each month, sometimes holidays etc. force us to accept an alternate date from the publisher. I would like to thank all correspondents, advertisers, & regular contributors for their much appreciated promptness in this month's issue.
More and more of our copy is arriving in before the deadline, making the life of the typists a little more relaxed. Thank you from all the Lantern staff for your continued support and interest.
