OLIVET U.C.W.

On March 7, "Ash Wednesday" the Olivet U.C.W. was welcomed to her home by the hostess, Mrs. Velma Dorman. The acting President Mrs. Laurie Mainse remarked on the different interpretations of the Theme "Self Service". The Worship topic, A Time for Confession was taken from the Upper Room, Exchange magazine. This dealt with the real meaning of Ash Wednesday and Lent; a time of withdrawal to look inward and meditate on the hidden "little sins" we have unconsciously allowed to creep into our lives. Lent gives us a time of Preparation for Redemption so we are ready to accept the gift of full salvation. Scriptures from Psalm 56 and Mark 9 were used, Hymn 98, Prayer of Confession and the Benediction closed the Worship Period. The U.C.W. Study Book, Jesus Means Life was the basis for a paperLife for the Poor, prepared by Mrs. Mollie Callaghan was read by Mrs. Amy Bracken. Dedication of the offering by Mrs. Ruby Bowden, reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report were given. A special report on the Kingston Presbyterial was given by Mrs. Amy Bracken. Business discussions included the quilting of "tops" made and donated by two of our members. The expenses, housekeeping needs at Bridge House, Kingston and many different suggestions in aid of the Olivet Church Building Fund. Immediate plans include a Ham supper to be held on April 13 at Olivet Church, a garage sale in May or June of anything and everything saleable. A small auction of home baking with Laurie acting as auctioneer at the close of the meeting, added a fair amount to the treasury. Lunch and courtesy remarks expressed by Mrs. Flo Moronghan concluded a most pleasant afternoon.
