When Lodge was closed, the Noble Grand, Bro. Peter Brechbill invited the 50 Brothers to enjoy a delicious meal in the dining hall.

DELTA W.I.

Delta W.I. met on Oct. 14. Following the devotional, Mrs. Laura Russell told a story of a rich merchant who changed from a selfish man to a man giving service to others. The offering and roll call followed. Sixteen members and 1 guest were present.

The minutes and financial report were given followed by a programme on autumn. Just as the preparation for a bountiful harvest must be planned, so should we plan our own lives.

Our donation of Bibles has gone to Bangladesh.

The meeting closed with Benediction.

On October 28 a most successful Harvest Supper took place at Delta United Church.

DELTA LEGION

The regular meeting of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch #207, Delta, was held on Nov. 9th, with President, Comrade Harry Vollick acting as Chairman. The minutes were read and approved.

Reports were given by the Treasurer, Chairman of the Poppy Committee, Building and Membership Committee. Comrade Ron White was appointed Community Service Officer.

Final plans were made for the supper on Nov. 21. The meal will consist of ham, beans, mashed potatoes, salads and pie. The price will be $2.50 and $5.00.

The Ways and Means Committee reported that a band had been hired for New Year's Eve. The deadline for tickets is Dec. 15th - no tickets available at the door.

Comrade Roy College was the winner of the Oct. 50-50 draw. Tickets on the ¼ of beef are selling slowly.

The meeting adjourned followed by a social hour.

Members of the Delta Royal Canadian Legion #207 and the Ladies Auxiliary observed Remembrance Day on Sunday, Nov. 8. They marched to the beat of the drum and were lead by the Colour Party to the United Church. Lessons were read and music was provided by a Quartet from Elgin. Rev. Richardson's sermon was "In Remembrance".

In the afternoon, they marched from the Legion Hall to the Cenotaph, behind the Brockville Highland Band, and under the direction of Comrade Jack Curry. Padre Grant Richardson read the Scripture. Prayers were offered by Rev. Riesberry of St. Paul's Anglican Church. The Piper's Lament was played by Ken Laroque. 27 wreaths were laid to remember those who had fallen in both World Wars. The requiem was said by Comrade Harry Vollick. After the service a social hour was held at the Legion Hall with 250 in attendance. Hamburgers, baked beans and coffee were served.

The Officers and members of the Delta Legion, Branch #207 and the Ladies Auxiliary would like to thank all those who helped or took part in any way to make the day a success.

LADIES AUXILIARY, ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION BRANCH # 207

The Auxiliary held their November meeting in the Legion Hall, and was opened by President Evelina Volbick. The minutes were read. There is open house every Wednesday evening for anyone interested in cards, darts, shuffleboard or dancing. Roll call was answered by 10 members. The treasurer's report showed success in the recent projects. The winner of the painted tablecloth raffle held at the rummage sale was Comrade M. Bryan.

The Remembrance Day Sunday Church Service held at Delta United Church was attended by members of the Legion and Legion Ladies Auxiliary. In the afternoon the Ladies Auxiliary wreath was placed on the Cenotaph.

Members were asked to decorate the Hall for Christmas on Dec. 13 at 2 p.m. After the reading of a comic poem by Comrade Gravelle, the meeting closed.
