KNOX LADIES GUILD

Dateline: Jan. 13 '78, Westport

The Ladies Guild of Knox Presbyterian Church held the first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. Bill McCullough with a good attendance despite the stormy weather conditions. The past president, Mrs. Don Bresee, opened the meeting and then invited the minister Mr. D.N. Henry to conduct the installation of new officers.

Mr. Henry spoke of the challenge facing those accepting the responsibility of leadership and challenged each member to do their best. He urged the group to put Christ first in all their endeavours and do things to His glory, and they cannot fail to have a worthwhile and meaningful year. The new slate of officers are: President—Mrs. Bill Clark, Vice-President—Mrs. Lorraine Colford, Secretary—Mrs. Mike Richardson, Treasurer—Mrs. Dick Merrick.

Mrs. Clark welcomed everyone and asked for their support during her two year term as President. She discussed a number of new ideas for projects for the coming year.

Several members handed in cushions to be kept for the next bazaar. The members drew names for the 'Secret Pal' club. Their identities are to be kept secret until next Christmas. Plans were made for the pot-luck supper to be held in conjunction with the annual congregational meeting in the evening of Sat., Jan. 21.

The program contest, A Sermon in Soap, was conducted by Mrs. Dick Merrick, and was won by Mrs. Doug Henry with Mrs. Clark winning the booby prize.

An inspirational devotional time was conducted by Mrs. Byron Gordon who gave everyone uplifting and challenging ideas for beginning this new year. She used the 91st psalm for her scriptural theme and each member answered the roll call with her favourite verse from that psalm.

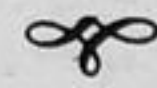

Mrs. McCullough served a delicious lunch and everyone enjoyed an informal chat. Mrs. Henry expressed the appreciation of all present to everyone who had contributed to the success of the meeting.
