

We would like to extend our "get well" wishes to Miss Ailleen Fahey and hope she will soon be home. The Board would also like to thank the volunteers and helpers who have kept Elgin Branch operating.

The Union office has been moved back into the Elgin Branch and the co-ordinator can be reached on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Elgin Library number 359-5315. We would like to thank the Senior Citizens for the use of part of their room however the bad weather has created problems thus necessitating the move back to the Elgin Branch. We hope Elgin patrons will forgive us for the inconvenience but we are sure this will be short-lived.

RIDEAU REVIEW

Over 300 new titles have been added in October. Some excellent children's "easy readers" and beautiful picture books are now on the shelves for the "wee" ones.

We are seeing a great increase in use of the young people's selections, especially in Elgin and Delta where the schools visit every 2 weeks.

Adult Fiction

Silmarrilion - J.R. Tolkien. For all Tolkien lovers, the latest of this re-known author's works.

Act of God - Chas. Templeton. The controversial topic is presented in a readable and exciting manner. Definitely a light-read in the "mystery" class.

Raw Silk - Janet Burraway. A taut and witty novel with insights into the male-female roles. An enlightening commentary on a women's self realization.

Sky Fall - Harry Harrison. Political problems, technical and human problems from a background to this tale of terror where a space satellite out of control threatens the world.

The Queen and the Gypsy - Constance Heaven. An exciting historical novel, told with good style, about Elizabeth I and her love for Robert Dudley. The story covers the period between Robert's early marriage and Elizabeth's accession to the throne more thoroughly than Elizabeth's reign. The author offers her theories regarding the death of Robert's wife, Amy Robsart.

Our nonfiction collection has been increased in all areas-Sports, crafts, Biography, Canadiana etc. For the latest additions, please ask your branch librarian for the acquisition list.

We are still interested in hearing from residents who would like to try "Talking Books". If you know of anyone who would enjoy this service, please contact your local librarian and leave the name, address and phone number of the resident so that we can set up appointments for visiting and demonstration.
