EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE

The annual Easter Sunrise Service held at Spy Rock on Foley Mountain was very well attended and was an inspirational start for Easter Sunday. At 6:30 in the morning a large crowd wended their way to this beautiful spot overlooking the village and the Rideau Lake to join in singing the glorious Easter hymns and bowing together in reverent prayer. The garden scene of that first Easter seemed very real as everyone worshiped in the natural surroundings, created by God's hand. Rev. H. Boston was the speaker.

Following the service everyone enjoyed a sumptuous breakfast at Knox Church Hall, provided by the women of St. Paul's Anglican Church.

KNOX LADIES GUILD

A most enjoyable April meeting of the Knox Ladies Guild was held at the home of Mrs. Bill McCulloch and the president welcomed members of the Westport Drama Group as special guests. Mrs. June Greisamer and her drama students presented a number of humorous vignettes entitled, "A Slice Of Life". These were extremely well presented and as each episode was portrayed, the members of the audience were reminded of some instance of similar content which they had experienced at some time in their life. Mrs. Jim Wing thanked Mrs. Greisamer and those participating for their good program. Taking part with their teacher were, Ross Patterson, Tom Scovil, Ted Landon, Ruth Pedherney, Lorraine Colford, Jean Johnston, Marlene Thake and June Boston. Everyone enjoyed a delicious buffet meal and the Guild then carried on with their regular meeting.

Mrs. Lorraine Colford and Mrs. Donna Richardson conducted an inspirational devotional period and each one was presented with a cross with a verse asking each one to visit a shut-in during the month and spread God's love to others. The scripture lesson was from Matthew's Gospel and the theme was the four crosses- The Cross of Atonement, the Cross of Disbelief, the Cross of Penitence and Our Cross. This portion closed with prayer.

The Guild will assist the Bible Society when they hold their Pot Luck Supper in the Church Hall on the evening of April 26th. And several ladies offered to help. Also, plans were made for the Church service on May 8th, when the Henrys will be away on vacation. Guild members will be taking over the service on that Sunday. It was also decided to host the Fall convention of the Presbyterian Young People of the Synod during the Thanksgiving weekend.
