LYNDHURST U.C.W.

The April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Sayeau. We were all happy to have Helen Moorhead back after her long Florida holiday and we wish to thank Hazel Gilfillen for the splendid job she did as acting pres. during the past three months. Helen opened the meeting with a poem, "Spring Housecleaning". Audrey Raison led the Devotional and we sang an Easter hymn, "Christ The Lord Is Risen Today". Roll call was answered by 13 ladies. A thank you note was read from Ethel Tye and an invitation for a May luncheon from the Olivet U.C.W.

A report was given by Ruth Galway on the Cancer Society and a report from Velma Kelsey from the Presbyterial meeting held in Brockville. Minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given. Business was taken care of and the meeting adjourned. A contest was held by Hazel and won by Velma Kelsey. A lovely lunch was served by Velma and Hazel. Audrey Welch thanked Margaret Sayeau for acting as hostess.
