

DELTA DATA

DELTA U.C.W.

The Delta United Church Women held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Leora Raisin.

President Nellie French opened the meeting with a welcome to all present. She then read the poem "O Poppy" from the North Leeds Lantern.

Mrs. Diane Kirby opened the devotional. All joined in reciting: "Sweet Hour of Prayer". Mrs. Kirby then enlarged upon this theme. This was followed by a prayer for strength in improvement of personal faults.

The collection was taken and dedicated. Roll call, minutes and the treasurer's report followed.

A letter was read from Glenna Howes - Stewardship Chairman, Bay of Quinte Conference. It suggests an enthusiastic approach to M & S projects.

Chairman Edith Woods of the nominating committee brought forward their report, which was accepted. The new officers were announced, including:

President: Mrs. Glenn Chant;
Recording Secretary: Mrs. Harold Cardiff; Treasurer: Mrs. Harold Russell.

Mrs. Bryan read an article about the Global Conference. The earth belongs to everyone. We should do our part for stewardship globally.

Mrs. Bryan described a recent cruise from Montreal to New York City visiting Quebec City, Saguenay River, Gaspé, Charlottetown. Mrs. French followed this with our study of the year - "Partners in the Gospel". An article was read describing the severe conditions in Angola.

A social time was enjoyed following the close of the meeting.

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION LADIES' AUXILIARY BRANCH #207

The Royal Canadian Legion Ladies' Auxiliary, Delta Branch, held their meeting in the Legion Hall on Nov. 10.

The meeting was called to order by President Lorna Pearson. Roll Call and the reading of the Minutes followed.

There was discussion about having a Variety Night sometime after Christmas. The recent Lyndhurst Variety Night had been a great success. There is to be a fun night every second and fourth Wednesday night.

We will be catering two Christmas parties.

An executive meeting is to be held at the Vollicks' home on December 1.

A social hour followed the adjournment.

On Sunday, Nov. 9, the members joined members of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch #207, by participating in the morning church service at the Baptist Church. In the afternoon many attended the Memorial Service at the Cenotaph.

The next meeting will be on Dec. 8. A social hour is to follow.

Mrs. Sheridan gave an excellent report on the recent convention. This covered speeches by Mrs. Collings and Mrs. Diamond. There was also an interesting skit by the two Home Economists concerning new foods on the market - e.g. long storage food, bag dinners, new apple juice, etc. She also reported on upcoming courses and said that the entertainment at the convention was excellent.

Mrs. Malony gave a report on the activities of the second day of the convention, including the reports from the various branches.

Mrs. Diane Kirby spoke about resolutions, concerning the tidying up of the village - going to the proper authorities. The resolutions were:

1. Ask government to ask people to buy Canadian.
2. Resolve to make adjustments for handicapped persons.
3. Ask government to investigate the needs of the elderly.
4. Ban personal advertisements on television and radio.
5. Urge government to act on acid rain and pollution of water, earth and air.

Following a discussion of the needs of the handicapped, the meeting was brought to a close.
