The Philipsville Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. T. McCann. The meeting opened with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect.

Roll call was - "A gift money can't buy". New business was dealt with, and, at a later date, we will be having our annual fish fry.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Davison.

The convenors - Mrs. Ross Stone, and Mrs. T. Bower, put on a demonstration on "A Festival of Dairy Foods". They made three dishes - Macaroni and cheese casserole, Onion cheese quiche, and colourful sole fillets. They had books which they gave to each member which included these recipes and explained the different ways milk can be used. The book explained the start of the different boards to the way things are now, and what is being done. After this, a question and answer period was held, and a contest with Mrs. Davison being the winner. Mrs. Hallett moved a vote of thanks to all who helped make it a very interesting program. We enjoyed the dishes that were made, for lunch. The meeting closed with the Royal Anthem.
