

SEELEY'S BAY AMBULANCE SERVICE

There are many people in our community who deserve recognition for their services.

We would like to let the Driver/Attendants of the Seeley's Bay Ambulance Service know that their efforts are appreciated by ourselves and the community at large. It is the courage and unselfish commitment of their time and skills to the community that is so admirable.

Another group of fine individuals who are often taken for granted are the spouses and families of the Driver/Attendants. They provide co-operation and encouragement as necessary to the following individuals:

THANK YOU FOR A SERVICE BEING WELL DONE.

Ross Ramsay, Manager
Anne Lavolette, Secretary
