THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

Volume I. No. 42

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1876.

81.00 per annum in Advance

ORE,

Cotton

irkets for Cash

CALKE.

b prices.

SCOTT

Agnew's Hotel,

at and will out-

CAGES

s in Wcol.

Shoes,

a chespest, and oring your rade of the latest

eed. TOS

TS

NEDY BROS

vats

hing com-

HOUSE

n and American

O.S.

and Surgeons-MILL-STREET ACTON. DR. R. MORROW. Physi. to the inhabitants of Acton and lege. New York, also Graduate of Victoria harness business in the College, Canada. Consultation days-Tuesdays and Fridays, from 9 a. m. till 4

BUSINESS CARDS.

Postmaster, Insurance Agent, Agent Money to Loan, Agent Montreal Tele-Com. in Q. B. Acc., Acron, ONT. Life Assurance Co. Deeds, Mortgages, led stock of &c., prepared neatly, promotly; correctly

hoan on Morigage security; Office-Glasgow House, Acton. J. D. MATHESON. Attorney- Repairing promptly attended at-Law, Sometion in Chancery, Give me a call and be convinced, Office-Corner of Main and Church

Streets. Georgetown.

A. LAIDLAW, Barrister King street; Milton, Main street. The dilton Office will be under the manages ment of D. W. Campbell, and Mr Laidlaw will attend at the "Milton Office ou Friday of each week.

HENRY L. DRAKE, INSURANCE AGENT, GUELPH, Agent for the Merciant le and Waterloo. All business chirusted to obscure will be faithfully attended to Orders by mail solicited. H. L. DRAKE

DATENTS for INVENTIONS a Canad athe United States and Europe Patent grafante of or no charge." Send adouten years. HENET Gh.IsT. Othera Canada, Mee vanical Engineer, Souchor of P.

tenix and Dehnga sman. TILLIAN WATKINS,

Luner Marriage Licenses & Certificates, my Royal Ap, olutment.) Business private and confidential office at the Post Office, Gl. nwilliam,

MRS. S. CARTER. Teacher of Husic, Drawing and French,

Church str e., Actob OLIVER LOZIER, Plasterer, Buns, Plast-gregariet Rough-easting done on. the most reasonable cerms, and satisfac-

CTON FLOTR MILLS. B. & E. NICKLIN, Proprietors.

F.oar and Feed always an band, whole sale and reant. Grissing and Chopping Dante. Cosu brall kin sof Gran. ROSSIN HOUSE, Acton.

Execute it to commodate in for the travel-DOMINION HOTEL, Acton. nes Hotel is hitet up fu first-class. sirie with he turniture. Commercial Tayethers with and your 4 common then ande monotion Sample Tooms, Special a d'ation par strth- wains of the fraveis fug public. Bar supplies with the best Liquid a of Cigars, Good Sabling and

TH. HEMSTREET,

Licensed Auctioneer For the Counties of Wellington and Hish ome, Actor, or at the FREE PRESS lock wo d. will be promptly attended to. Cerms reasonable.

DAVIDSON, Licensed Auctioneer For the County of Halton.

Sales attended to in any part of the - Adlress: A. Davidson, Campbellville, P.

> KENNEDY'S Marble Works, Opposite side from Mills Goodfellow's Foundry, and Near Eramosa Bridge, Guelph.

ALL-KINDS OF MONUMENTS

Tomb Stones, Mantle Picces ke., made to any size or design and but up in any part of th go Scotch Granite Monu ments imported to order. P.S .- A. Kennedy is a prac-ieal marble cutter.

LIVERY & SALE STABLE

J. P. ALLAN Takes pleasure in announcing to the At Reasonable Rates.

First-class Horses and Carriages His Rigs and Horses are the best that can be had, and he is determined not to Acton July 1st, 1875.

$12 aday at home. Agents wanted

MARM FOR SALE.

One hundred acres of land, wooded, being the east half of Lot 21, in the 3rd Concession, in the Township Esquesing. For particulars address THOMAS GARVIN. Erin P.O., Ont., Nov. 30, 1875.

$5 to $20 per day at home.

free STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine. Next the Post office, Mill Street.

DOMINION

W. H. LOWRY. M. B. M. HARNESS SHOP.

The subscriber begs to announce

p. m. Residence-West Bower street, Old Post Office Building,

TAMES MATTHEWS, Con-MILL STREET, ACTON,

where he is prepared to turn out work second to none in the Dominion, jas cheap as the cheapest, and on the shortest possible notice. D. HENDERSON. Convey- have on hand a large and well select-Horse Blankets. Whips. Brushes. Combs. Trunks. otc. Repairing promptly attended to.

J. F. DEMPSEY

CTOX BAKERY.

Acton, Nov. 25, 1875.

CHEAP BREAD

Opposition is The life of trade. Buy Galloway's superior Bread.

D. GALLOWAY

Acton and vicinity that he has removed his Baking Establishment to the premises next door to Morrow's |drug store, where he has built a first-class new oven and ratitled the premises in a first-class style for a Bakery and Confectionery Business and is turning out

BETTER BREAD THAN EVER

Candids, it'o' the best quality and at great'y re

Mixed Candies at 25c per lb Produce of a I klads taken in excharg

Weight for weight given in Bread in ex ct'ange for I lour.

Graham Bread a specialty Bread, Buns and Cakes delivered every day, fresh, around the village.

WEDDING & FANCY CAKE made to order and on hand, in the latest

N. B .- All goods are warranted pure, as nothing but the best of material is used. The patronage of the public is respectfally solicited.

Call and see for yourselves. GALLOWAY BROS Acton, March 8, 1876.

A CTON

PLANING MILLS

Pump, Sash. Door and Blind

Manufacturer of

Window Sash,

Doors,

Venetian Blinds Mouldings,

And other Building Requisites Also Makers of

IMPROVED SUCTION PUMPS

Lumber Planed and Dressed to orde in the best manner.

All work guaranteed. Acton, Jan., 1876.

DURE MILK.

The undersigned begs to thank his customers for the liberal patronage received during the past summer, and would say that he is now prepared to supply an additional number of customers with good, pure, fresh milk deliver ed every morning, and twice a day on Saturdays. Parties who keep cows will find it much cheaper and less trouble to get milk delivered at their doors, and they would do well to sell their cows and buy their milk. Twenty-one quart tickets for $1, if paid in advance, or twenty-one pint ticketsfor 50 cents. P. S. ARMSTRONG. Acton, Nov. 10th, 1875.

TOB PRINTING of all kinds neatly and promptly executed at the

FREE PRESS OFFICE,

the rose.

T TROLLOPE CHAPMAN, Practical Bookbinder. All Descriptions of Binding

Neatly Executed.

Account Books of all Kinds Made to

Ruling Promptly Attended to BINDERY - St. George's Square, Guelph

Orders left at the . FREE PRESS Office will receive prompt attention.

CHEAP BREAD FOR THE MILLION

B. & E. NICKLIN

Beg to announce that they have secure

First-Class Baker,

and that their Baking business is now in full operation, in the premises owned by Mrs. Hanna. Bread will be delivered daily at the houses in the village and vicinity.

Wedding Cakes, Tea Cakes, Pastry, Buns, &c., made in the very best manner, and kept pectfully solicited.

B. & E. NICKLIN. Acton. Feb. 29, 1876. MLEARING SALE OF

McNAIR'

A large quantity of

JEWELERY

To be rushed off at

VERY LOW PRICES.

CLATTER AMONGST TINWARE

THOMAS EBBAGE, NEW TIN AND STOVE DEPOT.

country that they have opened a

Tin, Sheet-Iron and Stove Business, n the premises formerly occupied by Mr. Chas. Dean, nearly opposite the post office.

may favor us with their patronage that they can rely upon having all work executed promptly and in the very best manner.

A large stock of Tin, Sheet-Iron and Japanned Ware always on hand, of the best quality STOVES of various patterns always in stock Eavetroughing Jobbing promptly attended to.

Rags, Iron, Brass and Copper taken in exchange. respectfully solicited.

WILSON & JOHNSON Acton, March 8, 1876.

I'LL REMEMBER YOU.

And the beautiful morn taps the And the dewdrops of licaven are kissing

It is then that my memory flies. As if on the wings of some beautiful In hasto with the message it bears ; To bring you a kiss of affection and say,

The love thou hast spoken for me,

And the kiss of affection still warm on know not if fortune be fickle of f Or if time on your memory wears, it not? I know that I love you wherever you go, And remember you, love, in my

When the angels of heaven are guarding As Good has ordained them to do, too alive to her foolishness! I know there is one watching you ;

And may its bright spirit be with you through life, To guide you up heaven's bright stairs o meet with the one who has loved you through life, prayers.

THE CLYTIE.

(From Chambers' Journal.)

Near an open window, overlook ing the Square, sat Marion Elton all kinds of Confectionery, Biscuits, writing a letter, as an Italian boy came by hawking some plaster The patronage of the public is res. images. The morning was so love y that she felt the influence of its brightness with a warm glow of heart-gladness which sunlight upon flowers has the power of imparting; and just then the dancing rays snone so beamingly upon the flower-box on the window-ledge, that she looked up to watch the dazzling effect, and inhale the perfume which the fragrant blossoms, as it seemed o her, exhaled gratefully.

as she thus paused, looked entreatleave her door unfed, or without images in his basket; but as her object was to relieve him, she took the first that offered-a minature bust of Clytie. For the little image she paid bim the price he asked which was double its real worth.

for a woman to bear; so it seemed greater than my own !: ...

to her just then, and a shadow fell people of Acton and surrounding upon her spirits in the contempla- a fit subject for the Commissioners | er my case such a bad one that I tion. "Would her purchase prove in Lunacy to take note of after this am hardly responsible. Come kept tormenting her mind, as she even unto the ideal of friendship, my speech, and made me tell wrote to her friend the following : | so rarely to be met with in this all. It is more than probable that "I have just bought a Clytic. O | terrestial sphere of perpetual dis- I shall need you, for loving as are Amy, suppose I also love in vain ! feel that, like her, I too would turn, spell-bound, towards the sun | the gentlemen came into the room | forbids my disclosing all I have of my world. It is appalling to and could scarcely disguise the written to you; and if the worst Being practical workmen of large | think how utterly my heart has boredom I felt, until that most comes to the worst, and he gone from me; and I have no hope pertinacious of men, William Blak- away without a word, then, Amy, that I shall ever find it where alone | eney, who vows he will never take | let me have you near me, that my "We met again last night, when to death by asking me why I was terly without sympathy. Human his coldness amounted to repulsion, out of spirits-was it the weather, suffering has its depths, but I quesbut a repulsion which attracts me &c .- until I became so irritated tion if it has one, psychologically > to court me. My life is now but "And yet-and yet-intuition what it longs for. Forgive me, odd part of it was, he never once manhood; bright, fascinating, in- void of modesty. The are a class nized as the gateway of India. and SEND 25c, to G. P. ROWELL & CO., New York, for Pamphlet of 100 pages your love is equal to any demands never avoided me; while I—and self in her determination only to commit larceny to become possessed snawer, "soon as they are unitary whom she loved; and there of it.—Knickerbocker.

ard Faithfull. Charming name, is lite he always is, but as cold as won only an inferior.

name?' Laugh at me, Amy; I "This, dear Amy, is my miser- that it was Leonard Faithful who the stream and entirely demolishdeserve it, for these confessions of able story, which I have been wish- was calling. "Should she receive ed. The boilers belonging to the n answers to prayers I've offered to mine are those of a girl who is but ing some time to confide to you. him? Her mother was out. Per-mills were carried along the "Yes, I conjured up visions of though she said, 'I, too, suffered Further surmise was cut short by Soon an explosion was heard the man; visions which were more as you do; they suffer most whose his entering the room. She found above the roar of the flood, and the than realized when I met him for natures are strongest to love most, it difficult to speak to him; with stream of water was thrown severthe first time at the Nugents', and for they are faithful even unto her mind so intensely occupied as al feet above the surface of the cur-And remember you, love, in his he took me into dinner. I can only death.' Is his name to be weven we have seen, calmness and an ab- rent. Another explosion followed type of man on a grand scale; with kiny sound to other ears than yours, within her was vibrating so keenly pieces. At Stoneville the dam light hair and beard, who spoke I know but too well that his name that she felt cold and speechless gave way. The flood next passed

> "His remarks were few, and I about to close her letter, when a sat for some time making common. track. With one tremendous crash was tongue tied; so much so, that fresh thought struck her, and she place remarks about the weather the railway embankment gave way, Harry said to me across the table : | continued : "It is said, not with. and society, and then his eye fell opening a gap 400 or 500 feet long Marian, why are you so silent? out some truth in my case, that upon the Clytic. You are usually lively enough .- I the most important part of a wopowered my little cousin.

> and smiled, saying: 'I should regret was going to omit telling you that continuously where it is not re- ing devastation before it. It lifted such a catastrophe for you, Miss I know nothing whatever about turned !"

into your happy Eden of girlhood, of grim poverty, which finds hon- from me; and yet, across my tears of this disclosure? - the more when running a race with want. .. ous electric sun-light, that I was me. Does he despise me? I dream On coming back to the room, she nearly blind with joy when I real- to ask the question of myself. placed the Clytie on an empty | ized for an instant the bare possibiwhile every now and then she such a nun! And then-transcen- her soul's richest blossom, even paused to take a glance at her pur- dent folly !- I began to catalogue there is no heart 'left to pluck chase, with a feeling of compassion, my qualities silently. What had If he does not care for me, I feel as she recalled the mythological I to attract one who, to my mind, that I have done nothing worthy legend and thought it but symbol- was so far above me? At that of his contempt, for I have simply Apollo being unreturned; she was believe the human heart is capable bark, and while he holds the rudchanged into a sun-flower, that she i of such base intricacies ? began to der in his hand, I shall be kept might ever follow his course) as the look jealously upon every pretty floating ever on faithful waters. ideal of unrequitted but constant woman in the room, who possessed affection-the unhappiest of woes in this respect changes so much you read this and suggest to your-receive from the many who seem him "To my dismay, as I was crossweariness, unspent in his society. ing the room, I found Mr. Faithful's I live but in the hours when I eyes intently fixed on me, as if he wished, she closed her letter, and know he is by; although, oddly had been watching my proceedings, sent it to the post. Feeling the enough, while full of conversation and was striving to read my char- vacuum left by the accomplishment with those around, he rarely ever acter. He turned away as soon as of a pleasant duty, she sat back in he saw I noticed him, but through- her chair, and with her hands that earth or society is heir to, that ish Government in some way or out the evening I observed him clasped across her eyes, indulged in of the newspaper borrower is the other is very likely to be accom-I am mad to use the word; it is, bent on the same study, until I he- a reverie. after all, but a delusion of my over- came so conscious and embarrassed Marion Elton was a girl of rowers have no sense of respect; no the valleys of the Tigris and Euwrought brain, which imagines I did not know what to do; for the twenty-five; in all the glory of wo idea of honor, and are totally de phrates are beginning to be recog-

our them out to one so sympha- cape. thetic and safs, you will not deny "He remained with the Nugents | who would have given their wealth borrow, they don't hesitate to steal me the luxury my friendship calls for a time, and then removed to his to endow her; and from poor men; it. As, an article of value they hand in a mild form of rebulke details. thus largely upon your good nature club, I imagine. I saw him fre- who only asked to toil for her. think a newspaper is worthless, and his wife, "that women are possessed to honor, knowing, as I do, that quently. He never sought, and But she was a woman "true to her- yet they will lie, and if needs be, ediby the devil?" "Yes," was the

"It seems little else than a fatali- ment could not hide from him was not a man among those she | When the curtains of night pinned back ty which has overtaken me! You how much I felt. He must have rejected who did not feel that they know, I may speak thus to you seen it in my face each time we valued her more in her refusal of voir dam which supplies the city of without vanity—that I have never met. How I have detested - their love, than its acceptance, if Worcester, Massachusetts, with lacked that chivalrous attention how I abhor-myself when I re- that were possible; for it shewed | water, gave way, letting loose 760,which is gratifying to most girls. member that it is I who am the them a true womanly nature, | 000,000 gallons of water. The I have accepted it with apprecia- wooer, and he just suffers my at- whose goodness converted their water rushed down the ravine in a tion, but nothing more; my heart, tentions! Our positions are en- | failure to win her love-into friend- | solid mass 20 feet in height, sweepthroughout, has remained intact; tirely reversed; and the worst of ship. She healed their wounds by ing everything in front of it. Trees until, or even before be came. It it is, I can no more help its being making them feel that though un were twisted up by the roots I'll. remember you, love, in my is so strange; my interest awoke so than the poor little needle, or successful, they had not loved un- houses were carried headlong until . from the moment my cousin Har- the miserable steel filing can help worthily, which was flattering at they were smasled to pieces. A have loved you too fondly to ever ry's wife said to me one day, about being attracted by the magnet. He least to their discernment, and clarge barn was taken up bodily, a year ago : 'We expect a visitor; visits at our house, is liked by my upheld their self-respect; for if we carried about fifty feet down the an old friend of Harry's; there family, and I, each day, growing are to be judged by the affections stream and demolished. The water were at college together. I have more and more feverish and impa- we aspire to gain, it is surely more continued to run for three hours When you told me how true you heard so much of him; that I am | tient for some sign of preference, ennobling to have aimed high even | before the reservoir was exhausted. quite curious to see this Mr. Leon- which, alas I he never gives. Po- to failure, than to have sought and When the stream reached the vil> death; while I, poor soul that I am, Her reverie was interrupted by gave way and its waters went to "I felt it so, and recalled what have grown more hopelessly infat- a startling double knock at the swell up the already uncontrollable Balzac says in other words, 'Who unted than ever, until I fear I am hall door, and from her point of ob- mass. Two large brick mills and a shall account for the attraction of a fast becoming a monomaniac, servation at the window, she saw frame mill were carried away by > thus into my life ? God forbid! sence of self-consciousness were out and another, until five had occur And yet, unmaidenly as the speech of the question. Every nerve red, and the boiler was blown to little, and was perfectly self-con- will be woven into my life, whether with emotion. His embarrassment over a small dam above Jamesville tained. Imagine my being attract. as faithful unto death in sorrow, was scarcely less than her own, depot. Spectators who were standed by such an opposite! but so it or worn with joy forever, Adieu!" but it was the agitation of a man ing near say the water was thirty

Elton. I hope I am not so formida. Mr. Fuithful, except that Harry Nugent says he is a man of good "I stammered out some senseless means and family in the North; quick, warm feelings were so shak- headlong, and at last, just before reply not at all to the purpose; but beyond this, he is so singularly ret- en by it, that she replied nervous- reaching the stone arch bridge at The Italian boy, catching her eye we advanced to a better under icent on all points concerning him- ly: "It is more a question of ex- Curtis' Pond it bored a hole down standing after that, for he began self, that I do not know if he has perience, and principle than of into the road bed and made a gar telling me of his travels, and I am a relation living. That he has opinion, I fancy. If a woman about eighty feet long and forty five sure that I rivalled Desdemona in been traveling for some time, is the thinks she has loved worthily, she or fifty feet deep. The water then begone face touched her heart, the interest with which I listened, single information he gives, and he would be doing violence to her bet found its way into Curtis' Pond. "Perhaps he is hungry," she How I regretted the move to the is only warmed into communica- ter nature were she untrue to her The devastation at this point will thought; and she beckoned him to drawing-room, which obliges ladies tiveness when on the subject of the faith. I can quite understand the be as costly as any along the entire call, while she rang the bell to have to yawn together for half an hour countries he has visited. His reti- constancy of Clytie, who could not route. The flood reached Leesville him admitted—not that she wanted in each other's company! As I sat cence on other points is painfully be satisfied with or give her heart about two hours after the 'dam any of his wares, but she felt some meditating after dinner, in a corner tormenting, since it arouses all my to other than the sun-god. Once broke, and struck the satinet mill compunction in suffering a fellow- by myself, I could not help exclaim- curiosity to fathom him. I she had become penetrated by the owned by Albert Curtis with terricreature who looked hungry to ing, mentally: 'You poor, foolish sometimes think there is a mystery rays of his perfection, how was it fic force. The mill gave way and Marian! the serpent has got at last about him, for when he imagines possible she could effer the tribute crumbled into ruins, and the dam were many very well designed and stolen away your peace for into his face an expression of mel-

"It is awful to awake to the with difficulty I restrain the long. the truth, that constancy to what stream from the reservoir through truth of the situation; and how ing I have felt at such times to one considers the nobles, becomes the other villages is nine miles was I to hide it -I, who am af snap the buds of conventionality. flicted with a temperament that and ask him its cause; for, alas! He held his eyes on the ground at the rate of three miles an hour cannot bear the burden of a secret, as I have already told you, he sees while she spoke, nor raised them the first mile, however, was made She knew he was cheating her, but I was ready to cry with vexation, but too well, I fear, that my heart once while she attered, with pa- in three minutes. she was one of those who could to find that my independence of is utterly his; and—but how can I thetic earnestness, a truth he had . The double arch bridge on the make allowance for the temptations mind and will had so utterly gone describe to you the pain and shame made her feel all too keenly. He Boston and Albany railway gave esty an almost impossible virtue there gleamed a flash of such glori- sees it, the more he shrinks from "It is positively inhuman to debracket, and continued her writing; lity of my ever winning the love of spise a woman for the offering of ised a fact of common occurrence. moment, Amy, dear, I felt that I loved him beyond the power of my She regarded the Clytie (the water. | was the plainest, most commonplace | will to control. Love, the lord nymph, whose love for the sun-god | woman in existence ! and-will you all, has taken the helm of my small "How I can see you smile self the necessity of coming to stay "If you do not think that I am with me for a little, as you consider confession, your friendship reaches dear friend; the Clytie has unknos-" I was surrounded shortly after them, especially my dear mother, my 'No' for an answer, worried me heart may not be left to break utmore than all the compliments I | that I rose from my seat and left | speaking, that will equal mine in such a case, Come, therefore, as Having at length written all she Amy; but I know that with you spoke to me. He only flung about telligent, and accomplished, she of people who may justly be termed England is evidently tightening her my feelings will be held sacred; me a chain of fascination, from was the centre of attraction where- vampires, who feed upon the fruits grip on that part of her empire The patronage of the public is and as it eases my overfull heart to which I found it impossible to es ever she went. She had more of others. They prefer to borrow every day.

Clytie looks mournfully at me, as haps he would not ask for her." stream. She finished writing, and was determined not to see or feel. They feet high when it approached the

"Do you believe such constancy sheds were carried away. At hope, Faithfull, you have not over- man's letter lies in the odd piece possible, Miss Elton? Do you Jamesville a section of the stream of intelligence she just remembers think the woman lives, apart from forced its way into the line of road "He turned quietly towards me, when it is about to be posted. I mythology, who is capable of loving and rushed down the track, carry-almost savagely, she thought. Her more than a mile. On it rushed himself unobserved, there comes of her highest love and worship to was carried away. Three hours any lesser light? Therefore, the after the effect was felt at New ancholy so profound, that it is Clytie for me is but the symbol of Worcester. The course of the > the law of necessity." offered no reply when she finished, way, and a section of the embank and a pause ensued, which he was ment, seventy feet long and twenty the first to break, in a voice which feet deep with it. An outlet was repulsed all tenderness, as he said, made and the danger at New Worwith apparent carelessness: "I am | cester was averted. After the secsorry Mrs. Elton is not at home, ond break in the Boston and for L called to wish you all good- Albany railway, the mill of the morrow, after having been a sad South Worcester was destroyed idler. This time, I am going west. The water then spread out over a I dare say you will hear of me as series of meadows, and in the south having come to grief in some of part of the city there was a gradual the wilds of South America: I inundation. The Boston and Alfear I cannot stay until Mrs. Elton | bany railroads were impassable for returns," he added, hurriedly, with averted eyes. Unable to meet her look of agony, he opened his watch and then, as if late, he said: " I wish you good bye, Miss Elton kindly present my compliments and adieux to your family." She was just conscious that took her hand, had shaken it cold ly, and was gone !- gone! without even one kind word or look! "Oh, how cruel! how inhuman!" she exclaimed, as she flung have several visits to pay, and must erself into a chair, benumbed with an anguish that was tearless. "He s unworthy!" was her first decis on, which buoyed her up with relentless endeavor to fling his memory from her heart; but all He was the sun-god of her woman's worship, towards whom her gaze would ever turn; for the voice of her own soul, stronger than opinion, louder than fact, whispered she had not been mistaken, and that he was worthy of her homage even though he left the blossom of (Conclusion next week.)

TAKE NOTICE -Of all the ills possession of Palestine by the Britmost obnoxious. Newspaper bor plished ere long, for Palestine and than one offer; from rich men, your newspaper, but if they cannot Bursting of a Reservoir. On Thursday evening the reserlage of New Worcester a mill dam and twentys feet deep. The coal rails and ties from the road bed He asked the question pointedly, and turned them topsy turvey for showing that the water advanced

I resume my wanderings to Wicks manufacturing company at several days. Return of the Jews to Pales

It would be a startling piece of news indeed, if 1876 should witness the return of the Jews to their own land. However improbable it may be, and that it is so is manifest, it is not impossible. The Jews of Europe generally are said to be on the tiploe of expectation in reference to this subject, seeing in the difficulties of the Sultan's Government, and the indifference of that of England to the fate of Turkey, an unusually favorable juncture for them. It is rumored that Baron Rothschild has offered to pay the whole of the Sultan's dishonored loan on is condition of being made feudal lord of Palestine and certain parts of Asia Minor. There may be no truth in the story, but it is at any rate within the bounds of possibility. If Palestine were thus gained it would be placed under English protection, and the Jews would her love to pine forever on its flock to it, and soon by their industry and skill restore it to its former fertility and prosperity. The

"Don't you think," said a hus

Prices.

& CO,

Street, Guelsk