THE WHITESIDE MURDER. Of all the afrocious inurders that have been committed in Canada haps the most diabolical of any was that committed in Esquesing. about six miles from Acton, last Sunday night. No words of ours can titly describe the sickening sight that presented itself early on THE DEED ENSHROUDED Monday morning on the farm of Mr. Robt. Whiteside, or the feeling SAD END OF A WEALTHY MISER. thought of the utter depravity that must have existed in the breast of the cowardly assassin who imbrued his evil hand in the blood of the poor decrepid old man. In looking for a motive for the committal of so villainous a deed, few could entera spirit of revenge. The object was the gravel road leading to Erin, character, the perpetrator, whoever he may be, most probably having in view prospective as well as immediate gain from the death of his victim, not being content to wait his removal in the ordinary course of nature, although he had already exceeded by several years the allotted span of three score years and ten. The only circumstance which stealing his precious wood or tanthe farm has always been so trifling position : that the children gradually fell into (idle and careless habits; and not ! having been brought up to any re gular home employment at which they might earn a respectable living, they were no doubt only too glad to leave home as soon as they were able to secure employment elsewhere. A feeling of disrespect for the "old man" seems to have taken possession of the whole family from the oldest to the youngest, although they all appear to be naturally of a cheerful and pleasant disposition. We remarked this, both at the house and during their examination at the inquest. The eldest son left. home some years ago, and is believed ed to be living somewhere in Michigan ; the eldest daughter is married to a respectable farmer in the neighborhood; the second daughter Elias Clark, George Murray, and to find out if he was murdered, but The little dog did all the barking; of the time the past few years; and The first witness examined was saying "O, ma, don't."
