

THE TURKISH ATROCITIES IN BULGARIA.

(Continued from Sept. 13th.) wall, including a number of soldiers about fifty yards wide by seventy-five long. Upon inspection we discovered that what appeared to be a mass of stones and rubbish is in reality and immense thin layer of stones. The whole of the little churchyard is heaped up with them to the depth of four or five feet, and it is from here the fearful odour comes.

Some weeks after the massacre, orders were sent to bury the dead. But the stench at that time had become so deadly that it was impossible to execute the order, or even to remain in the neighbourhood of the village. We were told there were three thousand people lying here in this little churchyard alone, and we could well believe it. It was a fearful sight—a night to haunt one through life. There were little curly heads in that fearful mass, crushed down by heavy stones, little feet not as long as your finger, on which the flesh was dried hard, by the ardent heat, before it had time to decompose; little baby hands stretched out as if for help; babes that had died wondering at the bright gleam of sabres and the red hands of the fierce-eyed men who whirled them about their heads.

The commercial news from Montreal is to the effect that the existing depression is being slowly removed. Business is better at this season than it was at the corresponding period last year, this is more especially the case in the boot and shoe trade. The Grand Trunk Railway Extension has been favorably considered by Mr. Hickson, General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway. He has expressed his willingness to build and run the road for a bonus not exceeding $15,000, the exact amount being contingent on the cost of grading.

The Judge of Ontario County recently held that neither the defendant nor the defendant's wife could give evidence in a liquor case. STANDARD MEASURES.—At a meeting of the Corn Exchange Association lately held in Toronto the report of the Board of Examiners appointed to fix the standards of grain was adopted as follows: No. 1, not less than 49 pounds; No. 2, not less than 46 pounds; No. 3, not less than 43 pounds to be measured in imperial bushels.

Alarms in the East. It is reported from Constantinople that the Porte has refused to suspend hostilities until Serbia accepts its conditions for peace which comprise the demolition of the fortresses at Belgrade and Semendria and the limitation of the Serbian army to 20,000 men. LORD DERBY ON THE EASTERN QUESTION.—A cable despatch from London, Sept. 11, says Lord Derby on that day expressed his indignation on the Eastern Question. In reply to an address he said he considered it had become more complicated by reason of the atrocities committed. Speaking for the Government, he said he could not entertain any proposition to reverse the policy pursued by England for the last sixty years.

The Arrest of Tweed. It is asserted that the fugitive "Boss" of New York has been arrested at Vigo, a small seaport town in Spain, and that arrangements are being made for his immediate surrender to the American Government. Tweed's career may briefly be summed up as follows: On the 31st December, 1869, just prior to the complete formation of his irresponsible Bossship, the debt of the City of New York was $36,000,000; on the 30th April, 1871, a few weeks before his power was broken, it was $86,411,000, an increase in fifteen months of nearly fifty and a quarter millions! On the evening of the 4th September, 1871, the best citizens of New York gathered in Cooper Institute to protest against the infamous robberies of his gang, which had been laid bare in excerpts from the Corporation books published by the New York Times. The case was carried into the Courts, and after long and vexatious delays Tweed was sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $1,500,000, and, subsequently, he was ordered to refund $6,000,000. His own aggregate "stealings" were estimated at $19,000,000 and those of his colleagues Sweeney and Connelly, who fled from trial, at $8,000,000.

Tweed, having been brought up to be examined in the $6,000,000 suit on the 4th of December, escaped from the custody of the officers. He requested permission to visit his wife at her residence on Madison Avenue, which was granted him. Arriving at the house, the officers remained downstairs in conversation with one of Tweed's sons, while the Boss himself went upstairs, and was no more seen. A reward of $10,000 was offered for his capture, and although a sensational story in the New York papers stated that he spent the winter in Mackinac, on the eastern shore of the Georgian Bay, nothing definite has been heard of him until this announcement of his arrest in Spain.

At half-past four on Friday afternoon a fire broke out opposite the main exhibition building in Philadelphia, and before extinguished destroyed property to the amount of about $30,000.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

The Conservatives held a largely attended picnic at Bellville on Tuesday, at which Sir John A. Macdonald and other party leaders were present.

The Reform demonstration at Dunnville on Tuesday is said to be one of the largest and most enthusiastic of its kind ever held in the country. Mr. Cartwright delivered an able address on the finances of the Dominion. Mr. Alnow also spoke on the length of the term pursued by the Opposition in connection with the License Bill, and Mr. Edgar reviewed the relations between British Columbia and the Dominion and Imperial Governments in relation to the Pacific Railway.

THE WHITEHOUSE MURDER.

THE INQUEST RESUMED AND AGAIN ADJOURNED. Mrs. Whitehouse Arrested. STARTLING REVELATIONS EXPECTED TO-NIGHT.

The adjourned inquest in the Whitehouse murder case was resumed last Thursday evening at Silver Creek.

Several witnesses were examined but nothing of importance elicited to shed further light on the mystery. Thomas Rider testified to having discovered the pitfall which the deceased kept at his bedside a few days before the murder, and that he still had it in his possession.

William Whitehouse was recalled, and gave some unimportant testimony in reference to a certain axe which his folks bought from John Fox a few years ago. He said that it bore some resemblance to the one found beside the dead body, but he could distinguish a difference in the handle and the breadth of the axe. He said he did not know what became of the axe they got from Mr. Fox.

Mrs. Cooper—sworn, said she was at the house of deceased on Sunday, the 20th; went there about 10 or 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and left between five and six; saw Henry Whitehouse there, ate dinner and supper with him at the table; had no conversation with him; don't know how the murder was committed, but think he had dark clothes; was not sent for to go over; just happened to go over on a visit; called at John Whitehouse's in the forenoon and also when returning in the evening; John Whitehouse, his wife, Martha McDade and Mr. Shirkey were in the house; went home before dark; could not tell anything about how the murder happened; did not see Henry and his mother talking together on Sunday; don't think they had an opportunity to talk much with any person whilst I remained there that day without my hearing and seeing them; nothing at all was mentioned about a will as talking to Mr. Whitehouse; he did not mention Henry's name in my presence; the family seemed to be all agreeable.

Robert Storey, sworn, testified to having seen Henry Whitehouse at Silver Creek on the fatal Sunday evening; had no conversation with him; he appeared to be dressed in dark clothes; think he was there when I left, a little after nine o'clock.

Mrs. Whitehouse, widow of deceased, recalled, said her husband made a will before 14 and 15 years ago; he left it at Mr. Campbell's; don't know if his having made another will; don't know when he took it from Campbell's; to the best of my knowledge the will has been destroyed. One day I was looking in the chest in my room; this will, showed it to Mary; this was only a short while ago; about two weeks before the murder; it said to Mary to burn the will as it was of no more use; I did not burn it; did not see Mary burn it; have not seen it since; she read part of it to me; I have often done away with writings that was of no use; did not want to be bothered keeping the will when it was of no use; heard the deceased say that he was not going to stand by that will; deceased read the will to me just after it was drawn; to the best of my knowledge the property was left to Henry and Mary; he wrote it himself; think it was witnessed by some of Mr. Campbell's folks; can't remember who were the executors; think Henry knew about the will; frequently heard him mention something about making another will; that he intended to divide the property among the four younger boys; think Henry knew of this; deceased frequently spoke of cutting Henry off without anything; don't know whether he ever said so in Henry's presence or not. When Willie came home to-day, he said there was a man asking him if he knew the axe; and he said he didn't, or something to that effect. Have not seen my son Robert for nine or ten years. Don't know that Mr. James Henderson was a witness to the will.

The coroner then stated to the jury that he had other witnesses to bring forward, and asked for an adjournment of a week, when evidence of a very important nature would be brought out. The inquest was then adjourned till Thursday (to-day) at one o'clock.

Mrs. Whitehouse, widow of the murdered man, was placed under arrest last Friday, at the instance of Detective Murray, of Toronto, and lodged in Milton jail. No presumption the suspicious circumstances which have led to her arrest will be revealed at the adjourned inquest to be held this afternoon. Startling developments will no doubt be brought out to shed light on the mystery, and it is most probable the jury will be able to render their verdict this evening.

C. V. R. DEBENTURES.—A bill has been filed in Chancery by the town of Milton against the trustees of the C. V. R. It seems that there are $19,000 yet in the hands of the trustees and it is supposed that as the Company has not completed its agreement with Milton it has no right to the bonds.

The Abyssinian War.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND EGYPTIAN TROOPS MASSACRED BY THE ABYSSINIANS. New York, Sept. 7.—A Herald's Paris special says: "I have just learned from a reliable source that a fresh disaster has befallen the Egyptian army of Abyssinia. Fifteen hundred Egyptian troops with their commander, Rabib Pasha, have been massacred. The Abyssinians afterwards proceeded to Masson, which they seized. The garrison and Government officers escaped on board some ships which happened to be in the port, and arrived safely at Suaz. The Egyptian Government is contemplating revenge and sending fresh troops to the scene of action. The cavalry and artillery were also being reorganized."

One Hundred Catholics Massacred in China. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Advice from Hong Kong up to August 15th state that the report of the massacre in Ning Kuo Fou is confirmed. The Roman Catholic church was destroyed, the officiating priest tortured and killed, and his assistants slain. The dead bodies were taken from their graves and defiled, and one hundred of the congregation slain. The French Missionary is taking active steps to secure the punishment of the guilty parties, among whom are numerous officials of rank. Several other assaults and murders of Christians have followed, and forty buildings have been destroyed. The damage to property is estimated at $60,000.

The SEAFORTH FIRE.—A woman named Griffiths has been charged with setting fire to her place to get the insurance, and starting the Seaforth fire. The Magistrates are investigating the whole affair. One party swore that Mrs. Griffith gave no alarm even when the whole inside of her dwelling was in flames, and the volume of flames were issuing from the chimney. The Court then adjourned for further evidence.

The latest information shows the total estimated loss by the St. Hyacinthe fire to be $1,500,000, and the total insurance was about $250,000. A fire broke out in Warkworth, Ont., Sunday afternoon, consuming thirty buildings. Loss about $30,000. A fire broke out in Hawkeville in the premises occupied by C. J. Peterson, general merchant, about two o'clock on Saturday morning, consuming the entire stock, household effects, and building. It spread to the shop and dwelling of N. S. Ball, shoemaker, from that to the premises of John Utman, saddler and harness-maker, and thence to E. Woodman's Hotel, completely destroying all these buildings, with part of their contents. Mrs. Peterson, her children, and her servant girl barely escaped with their lives, being rescued from the window of the upper story.

Milton people expect to see the Hamilton and North-western Railway running into their town before winter. In Toronto on Saturday the Toronto Lacrosse club defeated the Montreal team in the straight games retaining the championship. Superintendent Spicer, of the G. T. R., has urged on the officials the necessity of total abstinence from intoxicating liquors. A terrible conflagration has been raging in Paris, France. Many lives have already been lost, and an immense quantity of property destroyed.

The rails on the H. & N. W. R. are being laid between Wellington Square and the Ocean House, and the road in that vicinity is progressing rapidly. Midnight Fire Procs. To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR,—As yourself and many of your village readers are aware, we have of late been treated to the caterwaulings of a few drunken Bacchanals whose highest delight seems to be to make night hideous, whilst peaceable citizens are slumbering in their beds. Now, while as a general thing persons of this character endeavor to conceal their infirmity, it seems to be the chief delight of this band of drunken rowdies to glory in their shame. It is a pity that in a peaceable community, persons should be found possessing so little self-respect, and more the pity when we find these persons young men who think they can say some claim to respectability, pretty respectability, indeed, and the end of which is and to contemplate. Public attention of late has been directed to the increase of rioting and drunkenness in a certain section of this village, and it is in the matter of the License Act. Perhaps the Inspector of Licenses will give his attention to this matter. He that may have over the time has arrived when every good and true man should rise in his indignation against a class of persons who have become worse than a nuisance. Be assured this thing will no longer tolerate, and certain liquor dealers do not rest themselves and the peace of others, they will find at the granting of licenses for 1877, they have been weighed in the balance and found wanting, if indeed the vigilance of the law does not sooner overtake them.
