Falume II. No. 37 - Whole No. 90

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1877.

$1.00 per annum in Advance.

BUSINESS CARDS.

LEND

price 40 cente

we goods to be able West Bad

Establishmen!

their

SES

reet.

nes can not

OCK

usual.

MAH.

College, Member of College of Physicians and Surgeons. Office and Residence-Frederick Street, Acros, in the house lately occupied by R. Little, Esq.

DR. R. MORROW, Physican, Surgeon, de, of Bellevue Colere New Jork, also Gradante of Victoria ollege, Ginada. Consultation days-Tuestays and Fridays, from 9 a. m. till 4 p. m. Residence-West Bower street, and of reasonable terms. Money to Loan on Mortgage security. Office- Bread will be delivered daily at the Glasgow House, Acton.

D. MATHESON, Attorneyat-Law, Solicitor in Chancery

Streets, Georgetown. W. COOPER,

Provincial Land Surveyor and Civil Engineer, Guelph. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

PPLEBE & SIMPSON letters in Chancery, Conveyancers, &c Main Street, GEORGETOWN.

T'H. LAIDLAW. Barrister. angery, &c. Offices: - Hamitton, lu King street; Milton, Main street, The willou Office will be under the managelaw will attend at the "Milton Office on Friday of each week.

HEYRY L. DRAKE, INSURANCE AGENT, GEELPH, difficulty attended to. Office at Day's addressed to Guelph or Doon Post Office will receive prompt attention.

H. L. DEAKE

DATENTS for INVENTIONS for ; rinte ! instructions. Ag-ney in oper-Mechanical Engineer, Soliction of Pa tenis and Draughtsman.

TILLIAM WATEINS, lauer Marriage Licenses & Certificate By Royal Appointment.)

Basiness private and confidential office at the Post-Office, Glenwilliam,

MRS. S. CARTER. Teacher of Husic, Drawing and French

Church street, Acton. OLIVER LOZIER, Plasterer, Plastering and Rough-casting done on CTON FLOUR MILLS. B. & E. NICKLIN, Proprietors, Flour and Feed always on hand, wholebaile and retail. Gristing and Chopping Daily. Casa for all kinds of Grain. DOSSIN HOUSE, Acton. Excellent accommodation for the travel-

DOMINION HOTEL, Acton, Robert Agnew, Proprietor, This new Hotel is fitted up in first-cluss style with new furniture. Commercial Travellers will find good accommodation and commodition Sample Rooms. Special attention par ; to the wants of the travelling public. Bar supplied with the best Liquors and Cigars. Gool Stabling and

TH. HEMSTREET,

Licensed Auctioneer Porthe Counties of Wellington and 'Halon. Orders left at the FREE PRESS Office, Acton, or at my residence, in Gumming Machine, and are pr Rockword, will be promptly attended to. to gum Drag or Cross-cut Saws. Terms reasonable.

MILTON PLANING MILLS.

J. R. MITCHELL.

Manufacturer of Sash, Doors, Blinds, Mould Pings, Door and Window Frames, Pickets, etc.

Planing, Scroll Work and Matching Done to Order. Blinds 30 cents per foot. All work delivered in Acton free. Orders left at Second Bros. will promptly attended to.

TROLLOPE CHAPMAN, Practical Bookbinder.

Milton, June 6, 876.

All Descriptions of Binding Neatly Executed. secount Books of all Kinds Made

Ruling Promptly Attended to BINDERY-St. George's Square, Guelph

Orders left at the FREE PRESS Office will receive prompt attention. New York, for Pamphlet of 100 page, containing lists of 2000 newspapers, and estimates showing cost of advertising. $12 aday at home. Agents wented Co., Augusta, Maine.

$5 to $20 per day at home samples worth $1 ree. STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine.

CHEAP BREAD

H. LOWRY, M. B., M. FOR THE MILLION

B. & E. NICKLIN

Beg to announce that they have secured the services of a First-Class Baker, HENDERSON. Convey- and that their Baking business is now Life Assurance Co. Deeds, Mortgages, has Mortgages, by Mrs. Hanna. houses in the village and vicibity.

Wedding Cakes. Tea Cakes Pastry, Buns, &c.,

made in the very best manuer, and kept always on hand, good and fresh. Also all kinds of Confectionery, Biscuits, The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

JAS. MATTHEWS

Acton. Feb. 29, 1876.

CLERK 4TH DIVISION COURT.

ACTON,

COUNTY OF HALTON

Commissioner in Q. B.

Fire Insurance Agent.

- Life Insurance Agent.

Issuer of Marriage Licenses.

Agent Money to Loan or Borrow.

Agent Montreal Telegraph Co.

Debts Collected on Commission.

And General Agent, &c., &c.

Parties intrusting their business with ne will be satisfactorily dealt with. Office at the Post Office, Acton and Shingles

The undersigned have for sale at their mills in Acton a large quantity of all kinds of PINE AND HEMLOCK LUMBER. Pine Shingles and Lath.

Shingles of the best quality for only $1.85 per square.

GUMMING MACHINE. We have just introduced a new summing Machine, and are prepared BROWN & HALL Acton, Dec. 12, 1876.

CTON

LIVERY & SALE STABLE

J. P. ALLAN Takes pleasure in announcing to the public generally that he is prepared to furnish

First-class Horses and Carriages | Stratton family to be one of the unite our fates." At Reasonable Rates.

His Rigs and Horses are the best that. can be had, and he is determined not to be surpassed by any City Stable. Acton July 1st, 1875.

CITEAM

Carriage & Wagon WORKS, Main Street. - Acton.

MICHAEL SPEIGHT.

General Blacksmith, Carriage and Wagon-maker. Best Horse-Shoers in the County. lover's happiness. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed or price charged. First-Class Plows and Collard's Patent his own, which had been a stranger | good old doctor who had attended Iren Harrows always on hand. A good stock of Carriages and Wagons. Repairing promptly and properly at Acton, July 18, 1876.

DISAPPOINTMENT.

grow weary, Making pleasures bitter, glad joys dreary ! Drooping many spirits by thy cheerless For to all thou'st made thyself by thy sively.

Free from thy pall our hearts are light. est, gladdest. But touched by thee they're mourn ful, dullest, saddest. Now sorrow reigns where not long since And life itself is like a broken toy.

Blessing rich to curses are converted, Which thy cold hand could easy have Hopes, fond ambitions, ruthlessly Songs that would gladden life by thee

O'er a new victim writhing in his pain Thou standest ready deeply to pierce Experienced not, he's hopeful as of yore

When down you hurl him lower than Oft weeks and months, and sometimes toils and tears. Just when we think we have it, in you sed up the broad steps and entered at home, watched over by faithful And take our cherished hopes with one grand sweep.

monarch, true thou art, but sadness, And bitter blightings follow in thy In thy dark halls, which sunbeams

DECEMBER AND MAY BLOOM.

I was spending a few weeks with Mrs. Duncan Blaine-one of the Lady Directresses of the Hospital for Incurables.

She invited me to accompany her on one of her weekly visiting days, and gave me the pleasant task of cutting the flowers while she prepared a basket of delicacies for

Our preparations concluded, we stepped into Mrs. Blaine's satinlined coupe, and were whirled rapidly away to our destination We went into a room where several ladies were engaged in arrang ing tiny bouquets for distribution One lady, whose face was turned away from me, had such white hair that I thought she must be quite old. I carried my fragrant offering to her table. To my great surprise as she turned to thank me, I saw i young, sweet face, the large, bril liant dark eyes forming a strange contrast to her silvered hair. I had no time to question my friend until evening, when, seated in her cozy boudoir, I asked about her. Mrs. Blaine smiled. "That young face with a frame of white hair never fails to excite curiosity. If you like, I will tell you her history."

I assented eagerly, and will give you the story in Mrs. Blaine's "Annie Stratton is one of m dearest friends. Her husband was taking a tour through the South for the benefit of his health, and called to see a college-chum whose this !" home was in Virginia.

"He had suffered from a severe domestic affliction, and had changed from the merry youth of Homer Mason's recollection to a grave, reserved man. "But his dark face, with its have killed her !" expression of settled sadness pos-girl of sixteen. looked from the dark eyes of the nold's face. guileless girl as: they were raised his journey he was haunted by am I!" their memory, and after a time he returned to the southern home unhappy man's forehead. as a suitor for Annie's hand.

safely intrusted to Arnold's keeping ly the picture of happy bloom. from his remembrance of his noble.

should make a tour through the lous gift-reason.

said playfully.

you feel ennuye in my society?" and excited when he heard my the graces of the farmers, hoping to you double ten-butt. See a dou- be settled, and so will the presi- in the last three years, fallen off Arnold imprisoned one little hand story.

within his own for an answer. Dread Disappointment, dost thou ne'er Annie gave a sigh of content as she wished for words.

"His dark face worked convul- morrow!

you a moment's suffering." Annie nestled closer to his side. surging tide of pity for the unfor-"It seems such a sacrifice to give up tunate girl with such an inherit your free, untrammeled life and be ance to cloud her innocent, tied down to a little girl's side all life. Not for an instant did the time. I fear I shall be an ex- waver. I said firmly acting jealous little wife." Arnold answered gayly, and dur- the trust, and I shall not evade it. ing the rest of their journey kept | She shall be watched over, cherish- | ately quick but not rapid of speech; at bay any appearance of gloom ed as tenderly as though she were that might cloud his young wife's my sister." happiness. It was in the edge of a June evening when they reached hand in his impulsive grasp. home. Lights were placed at intervals along the carriage way, and I fear the future will bring regret. as they wound in and out, an occas- | So it was settled. The violent ional glimpse of the mansion was symptoms which followed her seen. Every window was ablaze father's death, soon subsided, with light, and when at last they her disease took the form of melan. Are spent for some great wish, 'mid stopped, Aenie alighted, and lean- choly. Then it changed to a suiing upon her husband's arm, pas- cidal mania. I tried to keep her

"For a few weeks her life was them several times, and by the like idyl. Then her husband was merest chance was rescued from summoned from home by a tele- self - destruction. Then, acting graph, and she was left for the first upon the advice of friends, I placed time with her old colored nurse, her in Dr. Wayne's care with in-Pleasures and joys will never find . Zilpah, who had accompanied her structions that every caprice should

"One morning Annie was glanc- | my fortune. She had been an ining over the pages of a favorite | mate of the asylum about ten years. monthly when a peal of the bell | and for a long time had been imrang through the house, and in a becile, so that she was oblivious of

"Please, ma'am, a man wishes to see to her welfare. was away, and he said he must see | you. Then I realized that my life had the housekeeper begging your par- | been sacrificed-that a selfish old name; but I had to ask you to step | finence over a boy-for a youth to the door, he's so pressing like." | eighteen is nothing more, and-bu hair into a massive knot, fastened fluence of my awakened heart it quickly, and followed the girl to appealed to the legislature to se the threshold awaiting her approach. | body gave me my freedom, consid-He handed her a telegram, saying ering it a justifiable act under the he was to deliver it in person to circumstances. Then I came Judge Stratton, or, if he were ab- you and asked you to be my wife sent, to some person in authority. Now you have the sad story.

Annie opened the note and read. | As Annie listened her set face "Sir. I send by express the relaxed, and the tears fell silently body of your wife. She died very suddenly, and as Dr. Wayne is told me before. It was so sudden, away, I have to act without orders. | and we were so happy.'

Annie looked up. "There is some mistake. You you forgive me. Let me feel that have brought the message to the soft cheek rest against mine once wrong address. This is Judge more. Tell me that you do not Arnold Stratton's residence, and I despise-am his wife." The man looked perplexed. "I am sprry to make trouble, his side.

The rattling of carriage-wheels to your own Annie." driven at a rapid pace interrupted him and Arnold Stratten ran up content parted the pale lips, and the steps just in time to see his wife's white, horror stricken face, and to catch her in his arms as she fell forward; apparently lifeless. He turned to the stranger, and | week ?" said sternly: "What is the meaning of all not break.

The man pointed to the letter which had fallen to the ground. He picked it up, and grew white to the ensily. God's ways are not like lips as be read :

sessed a peculiar charm for one pectful answer, " but it's something ed sufficiently to feel an interest in and gritty, and spot your linen member of the household-Homer's that can't be delayed, and my anything; but now she is a power giving it the appearance of being back without directions." "Arnold Stratton was too well The color came back to An- voice and look. When she "enters quite cold; however, of that anon. read in the phases of human nature | nie's face, and she opened her eyes | into rest," her crown will be bright | Now, then, about polishing shirts not to see the preference which and looked up piteously into Ar- with many jewels."

"Oh, Arnold! Say it is not!

ing of their journey earth and sky sought me to marry his only child, when fresh made. seemed conspiring Eden. The ten a girl of sixteen. Had he told me der green of the trees which stretch- that her mother died insane, boy as | The best way to discourage a ed their protecting arms over the I was, and great as was his influ- boil is to seek a right slippery place rocks, the blue arch above flecked ence over me, I should have refus- on the ice pavement, and then, with fleecy clouds, the merry birds ed. As it was, I consented, and when the boil ain't looking, come Rural Home. twittering their love-songs around the marriage ceremony was per- down on it-flop. them, all seemed in unison with the formed by his bed-side. With in There are two times in a man's wer's happiness.

"Occasionally, as Arnold Strate of her father developed her malady, paper—once when he has been in it beats modern phonetics: "80 ton looked upon the sweet face of and from that solemn scene of Par his girl-wife, a shadow stole over death, I rode in haste for the he is looking for a puff. to it of late. Annie noticed it, and her from infancy thinking her wild | The taffy party time is coming Pea 80-pat. See | month, with gentle meat showers and in 1876, $16,427,870. The ravings were the prelude to a brain- on. Young men about town are oh! double you cow. See you and possibly areas of boiled pota- statement shows that the imports "What am I to think, sir ! That fever. He was greatly surprised trying to ingratiate themselves into be-cub. See a bee-cab. Be toes, after which the weather will from the United States have, with-that marriage cannot stand That poor child's mother died a "Do you love me dearly, Ar- raying maniac, and such will be her fate as sure as the sun will rise to-

As I listened to his words, my "So well that I would die to save veins absolutely thrilled with hor ror, but mingled with it was

"No, Doctor, her father gave me

Dr. Preston almost crushed my "It is a noble deed, my boy, but family servants, but she eluded be gratified, if it took the whole of moment a servant tapped at the all early associations, not knowing me from a stranger when I called to see the master. I told him he | "At last I saw you and loved don, ma'am, for calling you sich a man had taken advantage of his in-"Annie arose and winding her I am distressing. Under the inthe door. The stranger stood upon saide the marriage. That august

"Oh, Arnold, if you had only

"Were!" He opened his arms. "Annie, come to me!". Say that He turned very pale and fell heavily forward. Annie sprang to Be of elegant black silk, cut prinmy whole heart. Look up! Speak The dim eyes opened, a smile of and elegant, but very plain. Cost, remained -he was dead.

hair turned white within the The wonder is that her heart did more, handsomely trimmed on my head "Child, hearts do not break so ours. He has his own means of "Brute !" said he, turning sav. bringing us to our appointed places. in your starch, say two ounces to agely to the messenger. "You Annie is one of his chosen children, the pound : then if you use an made perfect through suffering. It thin patent starch, be sure you us "I am sorry, sir,' was the res- was some years before she recover- it warm, otherwise it will get cold sister Annie, a glowing, sprightly orders were positive not to come for good among earth's sufferers. stained with grease. It is different There seems to be a magic in her with collar starch-it can be used

How to Mix Mustard.—Must- twice—that is starch and dry; mended and many people cumber word, to commence on the 1st inst. shily to his face. As he continued true! If she was your wife, what ard should be mixed with water then starch again. Iron your shirt their houses with them at consider. The name of the place where the that has been boiled and allowed in the usual way, making the linen able expense, only to find out how message originate and the address Beads of anguish stood upon the to cool; hot water destroys its nice and firm; but without any at greviously they have been disap- and signature will be telegraphed essential properties, and raw cold tempt at a good finish; don't lift pointed. The best protection we free. The Direct cable company "Annie, I have sinned against water might cause it to forment, the plaits; your shirt is now ever tried has been to tie up in close has followed suit. "Homer Mason was pleased you, but only in not telling you the Put the mustard in a cup, with a ready for polishing, but you ought cotton bags all furs and woolens at with the alliance. He knew the story of my life befere I dared to small pinch of salt, and mix with to have a board the same size as a all convenient to be so treated, after it very gradually sufficient boiled common shirtboard made of hard giving them a thorough shaking best in the country, and he felt His voice broke as he looked water to make it drop from the wood and covered with only one and cleansing, and letting them stry that Annie's happiness could be into the blighted young face so late- spoon without being watery. St r ply of plain cotton cloth. Put this there until they are again wanted. and mix well and rab the lumps board into the breast of your shirts, These bags can be hung anywhere "Annie, that poor lady who was | well down with the back of a spoon, damp the front very lightly with a out of the way. If there are no chivalric nature in their old, boyish my wife has been a monument of as mustard properly mixed should wet sponge, then take a polishing moths in the articles when tied up what a human being can become be perfectly free from these. The iron which is flat and bevelled there certainly can none get in "It was arranged that they when deprived of God's most preci- mustard pot should not be more a little at one end-polish gent afterward if the bags are sound. than half full; or rather less, if it ly with the bevelled part, tak- All can see that. But when the States in their own carriage for a "Her father was my dear old will not be used for a day or two, ing care not to drive the linen up clothes or articles are too numerous" wedding-trip. On the first morn- tutor, and on his death-bed he be- as the mustard is so much better into wave-like blisters; of course to make this convenient or desirget invitations.

"Good God, Stratton !" he said, Pen Picture of President | The Farmers' Sons' Franchise Hayes. A strong, well-built man of modsize and form, good-looking, healthy, hearty, and cheerful; full, sandy beard, slightly touched with silver streaks, a full face, ruddy and glowing with health; no crows' feet, no furrows, a well-shaped mouth, good teeth; two large, open, blue eyes of kindly expression; a smile on his lips; a high, broad clear forehead; a voice, deep, strong, and sonorious; large, shapely limbs; a full breast, quick but not nervous of movement; modera good listener, calm, cool, dispas sionate, anything but radical; never ed and assessed jointly with the Even if the weather is wet and cross, short, or sharp; slways affable, kind and candid, with no secrets to whisper, no plots to promote, no tricks to explain : open as the day, firm as a rock, pure as woman with no bad whether of tobacco, whiskey, or mything else; pure and plain of speech, popular among all classes without affection, mock dignity, or the least suspicion of demagoguery wearing the same face to all, speak ing the same language to all, bear ing himself with dignity and modes reserve ; regular in his hours, happy n his family relations as man is nothing mysterious to explain and no charge has eyer been made against him of any kind whatso-Ladies, here is something for you t is about Mrs. President-elect layes. More, and most interesting of all, it is about her dress. hen she became apprised that she was to be mistress of the White House for the next four years, she immediately began to think about what would be the proper thing for her to wear at the inaugural of her husband as President. She decided to take the train from Columbus her home, and go to Cincinnati. where she could get the styles.

She went. She visited the la!ing fashion-firm of the city, and there she decided upon her costumes. A sly reporter crept into the establishment soon after Mrs. Hayes left, and these were the orders which he read against her name. Want to hear them? Of course? cesse in style, high in the throat, ma'am, but that's the gentleman's | "Arnold! I do forgive you with long sleeves, full train. Trimmed divided between the father, if livwith black velvet, blue satin, and Valenciennes lace : must be rich $500. Evening, or reception dress. Be of Quaker gray, corsage waist, fringe and flowers. Cost. $300 Morning dress. Be of blue silk of the same shade, fringe to have ever seen is the following, town Telegraph. you be-a tub. 80 oh! pea-a sure and dollar umbrellas will pre- 388. Total dutiable goods, 1874, top Be 80-bat. See 80-cat. vail during the early part of the $19,400,612; 1875, $18,354,164, ble ell-call."

features of the Farmers' Sons' Fran- closed. It is no use having large chise Bill, enacted law by the On sheets of glass if they are allowed tario Assembly : every farmer's son bona fide resident house is to be kept healthy, every on the farm of his father or mother, room in it should have the windows assessed on such roll, in respect of changed. In nurseries, school such farm in the manner following : rooms, workshops, or other apart-If the father be living, and either ments which are in constant use, the father or mother be the owner the windows should be thrown open of the farm, the sons shall be enter- whenever the occupants are absent.

the sons may be entered under and bas been breathed over and over assessed as if bona fide occupants or again. In nurseries special care tenants under the mother, within should be taken to keep the winthe meaning of the " Election Law dows clean, for young children, Every farmer's son, 21- years of of sunshine; and for the same age, residing at the time of election, reason the rooms occupied by them in the Electoral Division or Riding ought, if possible, to face the south in which he tenders his vote, and What we have already said as to having resided on the farm of his the ventilation of living rooms father or mother for 12 months, applies with still greater force to next prior to the return of the as sleeping apartments. In sitting sessment roll, provided he is not rooms or workshops the door is lisqualified under Sections 2, 3 or from time to time opened, so that.

of the act, rated on the assessment not opened for many consecutive roll for such farm, at an amount bours, and it is therefore most imsufficient to qualify a vote, shall be portant that air should be admitted four months or under shall not dis- an unhealthy thing for the same the provisions of the act, may re- | ventilator should be introduced in or tenant, and shall be liable as top. This precaution ought especiowner, occupant or tenant in re ally to be attended to where, from spect to such assessment, and shall limited accommodation, several inhave the right to apply and com- dividuals are obliged to occupy one the farm, and the farm is not rated and ceilings. This not only adds and assessed at an amount suffi- brightness and cheerfulness to a cient, if equally divided between dwelling, but cleanses the walls, them, to give a qualification to vote and serves to remove anything to the father and all the sons, which might engender infection. where the father is living, or to the In fact cleanliness in everything is sons alone, where the father is dead, one of the main securities against and the mother is a widow, then disease. the right to be assessed and to vote under this act shall belong to and be the right only of the father and with the printer! such of the eldest or elder of said sons to whom the amount at which the farm is rated and assessed will. when equally divided between them. give the qualification to vote; proat which the farm is so rated and something like early intelligence, assessed is insufficient, if equally but may be useful ing, and one son, to give to each a the great curative powers of milk qualification to vote, then the fath- weed, or cotton weed, when used er shall be the only person entitled for liver complaint. The fact may to be assessed and to vote in re- prove valuable information to some spect of such farm. If the assessment for 1877 be completed before the passage of this act, any son entitled to vote under a girl of 14 years of age, has cont, may apply to the Court of Re vision to enter his name with the same effect as if the act had passed returned to the Home in Toronto on the 1st of January, 1877. Every son qualified by the act. shall have the right to vote at municipal and general elections The word "father" shall include sten-father."

Protection against Moths. We have every spring many modes offered of protecting furs and I minion Government have issued an woolens against the destructive order prohibiting the importation attacks of the moth during warm of live stock. The U.S. Governweather. We have seen various ment have taken a similar stand. preparations sold for this purpose, with long accounts appended of starch the fronts and wristbands as their being perfect remedies. - Red pany have announced a reduction ceder chests and closets are recom. in ocean messages to 25 cents per weeks take out the clothes and Canada in the years 1874, 1875 shake them up well. No moth and 1876 respectively, was brought

Light and Air.

There is no use in having con-

The following are the principal venient windows; it they are kept to become so dirty that the light For the purpose of assessment, cannot come through them. If a at the time of the making of the opened daily, and allowed to re assessment roll, shall be entitled to main open long enough for the be, and may be, entered, rated and atmosphere to be thoroughly stormy, a few inches at the top If the father be dead and the should be opened, for a little damp mother owns the farm, and a widow, is better than an atmosphere which like young plants, require plenty of the Election Law of 1868, and a slight amount of change of air is

s in accordance with the provisions | secured; but a bed-room door is voter. Temporary absence of to it by some other means, for it is atmosphere to be breathed and A son entitled to be assessed, by breathed over again. Either quire his name to be entered as the wall, or a small portion of the oint or separate owner, occupant | window should be left open at the plain to the Court of Revision as room. Another simple means of keeping a house healthy is frequent-If there be more than one son on | ly to color and whitewash the walls

Now is the time to get square

Jews are very rarely attacked by epidemic diseases. It is because they eat no pork;

There will be a total eclipse of vided, mereover, that if the amount | the moon in the year 1999. That's An exchange gives an account of > suffering persons. A servant of Mr. W. Ross, Barrie. fessed to setting fire to the premises on two occasions. She has been from which she had been taken by her employer, A Canadian associated press company has been formed in Montreal for the purpose of obtaining English and European news from London.

prepared for Canadian papers. On account of the prevalence of the rinderpest in Europe, the Do-

The Anglo American cable com-A meeting of the Reformers of the electoral district of Cardwell to re organize preparatory to the each township. The meeting was In the House of Commons on

The most original spelling we will ever disturb them .- German- down. From it, it appears that the imports were as follows : Total free goods, 1874, $5,537,325; 1875, Probabilities. - Increased pres. $6,322,242, and in 1876 $5,010, by about $3,500,000.

be, strong in the affections of the people, such is General Hayes. President elect of the United States No man was ever so fortunate He has not a single personal enem n Ohio, a fact true perhaps of no other prominent politician in the State. In all his long public career as Congressmen, general in the army, Governor three times, there

Well then, here: Inaugural dress.

" Now, dear, you have the sad square neck, demi-sleeve, full train. story. Do you wonder that her Trimmed with Valenciennes lace.

Mrs. Blaine laid her hand gently match, demi-train, and princess To Make Glossy Shirts. Put a little common white was stiff as you can. Always starch this requires a little practice, but if able, hang up in the wardrobe, after you are careful and persevere, in a a good shaking, and place little Monday, in answer to a motion of short time you will he able to give bags of camphor all over the ward. Mr. Young, a return showing the that enamel-like finish which seems robe, laying a few all over the bot- general nature and value of all to be so much wanted .- American tom. Then, about every three manufactured goods imported into dential question.