MY FRIEND, THE TRAMP.

DEFTER LATE THAN NEVER.

But keep this wholesome truth in mine

you can keep ahead, 'tis well .-

But never trip your neighbor ;

But if you are outstripped at last,

Remomber, though you are surpassed,

l'is noble when you can excel,

By honest, patient labor :

Press on as bold as over ;

Tis better late than never.

Ne'er labor for an idle boast . Of victory o'er another;

Succeed by noble daring :

Life is'a race, where some succeed,

Tis luck at times, at others speed,

While others are beginning ;

That gives an early winning.

But if you chance to fall behind.
