LOCAL MATTERS.

We tender our thanks to those of our patrons who responded to our request a few weeks ago to pay up their accounts due this office. There are yet, however, a large number who have not paid for this year's Free Press, and some whose indebtedness extends over last year. We would be very much pleased to see or hear from them soon.

—Be social this evening. —Trees hold their summer dress very well, but ere long will don their fall attire.

—An abundance of luscious peaches and cream at the Drill Shed this evening.

—The country is looking as fresh and green as in June, thanks to the frequent rains.

—All Dye Stuffs bought at the Hall St. Pharmacy are warranted—J. E. McGavin.

—Mr. L. Cresson will offer his farm and stock for sale at public auction, on Tuesday, 24th of October.

—Married man, don't fail to take your wife and children to the social entertainment in the Drill Shed this evening. Give them all a treat.

—The leaves of our national tree are beginning to assume their fall hue—a reminder that cold weather is near at hand. The first frost has just put in an appearance.

—The Knights desire us to express their thanks to Major Allan and Captain Shaw for permitting them the use of the Drill Shed for their entertainment this evening.

—Young men, laws and customs allow you to marry but one wife; but the Knights of Pythias will permit you to escort as many to the concert this evening as your purse will allow. Don't be bashful.

—If you want to see how the principles of communism are spreading, pick out a paper of tobacco in a small crowd on the corner. If that tobacco is not held "in common," times are improving.

—Young men and maidens will have an excellent opportunity to enjoy themselves and talk soft nonsense at the Frolic concert this evening. We shall expect to see a large number of them there.

Good Work.—The Mann Bros. of Acton, threshed 1050 bushels of wheat, oats and barley last Friday at Richard Graham's farm, Ashgrove. The wheel was driven by Peter E. Worden. They have good horses down there.

—Mr. R. Little, County School Inspector, returned home a few days ago from his professional visit to the District of Algoma. He was absent some what longer than he anticipated, having been disqualified from active work, several days, by illness.

—Young ladies, quite a number of good-looking young Knights from Toronto will be at the concert this evening. Their handsome uniforms will no doubt attract your attention, but we warn you against falling in love with any of them.

A CLEVER GIRL.—At a recent picnic in the lower end of the county, one of the girls told a fellow that she would give him a kiss if he would catch her. She ran until she got out of sight of the old folks, and then gave up. This shows what girls will do when they are hard pressed.

—Young people should be careful not to engage in long debates at front gates, and indulge in chirping sounds similar to the noise made by dogs when drawing their heads out of mud—especially when a spirited team of carriage horses is standing by ready to be frightened by the peculiar sounds.

—The Knights of Pythias would be pleased to welcome to their Lodge Room at many ladies and gentlemen, this evening as would wish to witness the Meditative ceremonies. Seats will be provided for as many as the room will accommodate. Ladies are especially invited. The Lodge will be opened at half past six; and adjourn in time for the Frolic concert.

—General business appears to be generally reviving in our village. Farmers every side drive in and are quite apt to leave considerable money in the place. Our shops and stores are capable of doing a much more extensive business than is done at present, and when the proprietors get their Fall advertisements into the Free Press, there will doubtless soon be a healthy revival of trade.

—Mr. Chas. Carter, whose name appears on the programme for the concert this evening, and who arrived a few weeks ago from London, England, has had been completing his high school education, is a son of Mr. Samuel Carter, of this village. He is said to be a highly accomplished pianist, and will no doubt delight the audience with instrumental performances of a superior character.

Fall Shows.

Provincial at London, Sept. 24-28. Guelph Central at Guelph, Oct. 2, 4, 5. Hamilton Central at Hamilton, Oct. 2, 4, 5. Waterloo at Orangeville, Sept. 26, 27, 28. Halton at Milton, Oct. 11, 12. Peel at Brampton, Oct. 8, 9, 10. Esquimaux at Georgetown, Oct. 10. Nassagaweya at Brockville, Sept. 28. Fenelon at Rockwood, Oct. 9. Erin at Erin Village, Oct. 18.

—There is and always has been a class of people who float around the country, settle themselves in a town and run up debt in every store they possibly can without ever expecting to pay for their purchases. There is another class who are considered respectable—not from personal merit, but from birth or surroundings—who also run up debt thinking their position warrants it and it is no detriment to them. Such persons may do for a time, but they cannot last. They bring their own reward.

Walker Lodge, A. F. & M. S. An Emergency Meeting of the above Lodge will be held next Monday evening, 24th inst.

Heard From.—Some of our local friends will no doubt remember the Yankee stranger who was hanging around this office several days a week ago, and who suddenly left without saying good-bye to any body, or settling for a week's board. We mean the fellow who told a number of people around town that he was about buying the Free Press office.

Well, here is a paragraph we find in an exchange in which his name appears as the editor of a paper in Stuyvesant. We cannot conscientiously congratulate the people of that village.

A "LIVELY" SHEET.—Stuyvesant has a home paper—a very neat little sheet—of twenty columns. So much to its credit, but the editor being a live Yankee has introduced the "smart" Western style of journalism, which, possibly be appreciated, though we are inclined to think not. Here for example is a specimen paragraph from a column of similar style: "A clergyman at Owen Sound stopped his prayer to lead an unruly man out by the ear, and went on 'As I was saying, O Lord.'" Of course no such incident occurred in Owen Sound, nor probably anywhere else.

The editor, whose name by the way is Harcourt, tells us in this edition: "If you are anxious to hear from whence we came, we answer that we came from the city of Destruction— from the home of double distilled, and very, seven-sided liars and educated political pirates." Rather a bad introduction that. As to politics he tells his experience as a member of the party journal it was found necessary to resort to the most low-lived villainy in order to compete with the villainy of the opposition. He has tried, and has been heartily tired of the deception practiced by the publishers of party organs, and now, as we read, on occasion, could induce him to part with his independence, both politically and religiously.

Pay as You Go.—Mr. J. W. Mann wishes to announce to his customers that on and after the 1st of October, he intends to adhere strictly to the ready-pay system of doing business. He also earnestly requests all those who are indebted to him to call and settle up their accounts immediately.

—Mr. John Hawkins has purchased a stock of goods and intends opening out a variety store in the premises directly opposite Hyler's carriage works. Will be open in a few days.

—Christie, Henderson & Co. now announce to their many friends that their Millinery Show Room this week will be fully stocked with all the latest styles and designs of the season. They charge no fancy prices for millinery. Ladies, remember this.

PAY THE BARBER.—Mr. George Levens wishes to state to those of his customers who have not paid for their shaves for the past several months that if they don't ante-up immediately he will find a way to make them do it. Harcourt he will trust no one except his regular monthly customers.

—The Hon. Alex. Mackenzie in his speech at Brampton yesterday, declared that every honest elector in the three counties of Peel, Halton and Wellington knows the true state of affairs. He said that the Free Press, the Standard, the Times, the Herald of Health cautions us against drinking ice water. What can we drink anyhow?—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Drink milk, then, of course.

The yellow fever is spreading rapidly at Fernandina, Fla., thirty-eight new cases having occurred within twelve hours. Whole families are down, and physicians are leaving the city in hot haste. Since the 20th of August there have been twenty deaths from fever.

—Mr. John Tait, formerly of Georgetown, has closed his Commercial and Teachers' College in Owen Sound, and accepted the position of first English teacher in the High School at Collingwood at a salary of $1,000.

—During a thunder storm on Thursday morning (yesterday) H. Hitchens, with four sons and two daughters, took refuge under a tree near Georgetown. The lightning struck the tree, and three children—two sons and a daughter—were killed. The father and remaining children were seriously hurt.

—A meeting was held lately in Berlin to examine into the proposed opening of a competing railway line to that town, and after considerable discussion, a branch of the Great Western from Paris to Berlin was the most favored. As high as $100,000 of bonus on the part of the town was spoken of if it would secure the building of the branch.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.

A Safe Relief for the Sufferer.

Better value than ever in Boots and Shoes at Crane & Son's.

—The township of Caledon has lost one of its earliest pioneers in the removal of Mr. George Bell, who for 57 years occupied the place on which he died, at the ripe age of 81, a few weeks ago. Mr. Bell came to Caledon in the year 1820, when the whole country around was a wilderness. In 1824 he married Catharine, the second daughter of the late Mr. Alexander Robertson, of Esquimaux. With her he lived for the long period of 63 years, and survived her only some ten days. Mr. Bell was a man of no ordinary energy and industry. He had read a good deal and was a keen and intelligent observer.

MILLERS ASSOCIATION AND CLAWSON WHEAT.—The regular meeting of the Waterloo Millers' Association took place at Waterloo, on the 11th Sept., in the town hall, and was largely attended. The matter of organizing a Millers' Insurance Co., was left over. A loaf of bread made of Clawson wheat was produced by Mr. D. Goldie, and all present partook of it. After various opinions had been expressed it was moved by Mr. Peter Slerk, seconded by Mr. Rutz, and carried unanimously, that the Clawson wheat is acceptable to millers, and can be recommended to farmers as one giving a good yield of flour and making excellent bread.

—The Christian Guardian advocates an amendment of the Duncas Act. There must be more polling places than one. Places where liquor is sold should be closed during the voting. Protection must be had against bribery and corruption. The five-gallon clause should be removed. The Act should clearly provide for its own enforcement. These are important alterations, and no doubt they will be made by Parliament at an early date.

—Mr. Gough and Mr. Murphy say we must not drink malt and spirituous liquors; Dio Lewis says coffee and tea are poisonous; the Herald of Health cautions us against drinking ice water. What can we drink anyhow?—Philadelphia Bulletin.

MANHOOD.

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Cutler's Celebrated Essay on the (radical and permanent cure) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incurability, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excessive indulgence in the use of spirituous liquors, only 6 cents per copy.

Prescriptions sent enclosed, only 6 cents per copy. This celebrated medicine, in this admirable Essay clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the use of any other medicinal or the application of the knife, or any other kind of operation, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his case may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
