That Narrow Road. employed by the Actou and Esquesing | destroyed. The origin of the fire More than a year ago, a surveyor was corporations to determine the proper width of the road leading from this village towards Nassagaweya. The surveyor did his duty, put down stakes, reported to the council, and was paid for his work. So far there has been no further step taken towards having the fences removed back to their proper places. The winter will soon be on again, and unless something is done at once, the same old trouble of almost unpassable snow banks, caused by the extreme narrowness of the road, will have to be contended with. This is a matter of considerable importance to
