ing held daily and nightly in every section of the county, and the subject is being discussed on both sides with the utmost vigor. The newspapers teem with correspondence and editorials on the subject, so that the merits and demerits of the Act are pretty thoroughly discussed in all their various hues. Both the liquor interest and the temperance interest are well organized and strongly represented for the campaigh. The voting, we believe, commences near the end of this month. Seeing that the agitation is so general through out all parts of the Chunty, and that the people are necessarily wakened up to the necessity of taking a lively interest in the matter, there can be no question but there will be a very large Tote polled. The probabilities appear so far to be largely in favor of the passing of the By-law in the County.
