LOCAL MATTERS.

Polish up your skates. J. C. Hill for good skates. The tax collector is on the way. Christmas presents at Hynds' Jewellery Store. Some of the crossings in town are simply execrable. The FREE PRESS from now to Jan. 1st, '78, for $1. See Hynds' new advertisement on second page. Road the advertisements today and patronize the advertiser.

A question often asked, "Where do you buy your bread?" The answer always comes, "At Nicklin's." The Skating Rink was flooded last week for the first time, when it was found that one end of the rink was higher than the other. Since then men have been engaged leveling the bottom, and it is understood they will have finished in a day or two, when it will be again flooded.

Hill's Photographs are the best. MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS. There does not seem to be any stir over the coming Municipal elections. Whether there will be any change in the present Council it is hard to say, but it is generally understood that several new candidates are aspiring for municipal honors. The names of the new candidates are not yet made public.

Christmas presents at Hynds' Jewellery Store. Application will be made at the next session of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario for an act to incorporate the Town of Guelph as a City, and to authorize the conversion of the burying ground within the limits of Wyndham, Quebec, Yarmouth and Woolwich Streets, into a park or pleasure ground, and for other purposes.

FLANNELS. At this season of the year the most desirable article for children's clothing is a nice warm flannel. You can get beautiful check flannels just suitable for that purpose for only 25 cents per yard, at Christie, Henderson & Co.'s, Acton.

ACCIDENT IN ERIN. On Thursday last, while a lad named John Cripps, aged 12, son of Mr. Wm. Cripps, was riding on horseback, the horse on which he sat fell, throwing him with violence to the ground, alighting on his head. He was insensible when picked up, and at latest accounts has not spoken. Dr. Lowry, Acton, attends the sufferer.

Before making Christmas purchases our readers would do well to look over our advertising columns. Business men who advertise are generally the most liberal; besides, they want your trade, and go on the principle that what is worth having is worth asking for. Such men are always pains-taking, and endeavor to satisfy every customer while those who don't advertise virtually say, "You can trade with us if you like, but mind we don't ask you to."

Christmas presents at Hynds' Jewellery Store. WALLACEBERG ADVOCATE. This neat little sheet has had a change in the proprietorship. Mr. A. Crook, the former editor has retired, and his partner, Mr. M. Ferguson, assumes the cares and responsibilities of editor. Being personally acquainted with Mr. Ferguson, we know him to be an enterprising young man, and have no doubt he will fill the editor's chair with credit to himself.

Mr. Ransom Adams, of this place had a horse and buggy stolen lately. It appears that, on Nov. 19, a man named John Felt, from Churchville, wished to hire the rig for a few days to go to Beaverton. Having secured the rig he drove off and has not been heard of since. Mr. Adams offers a reward for any person who will give information which will lead to the recovery of the property and conviction of the thief.

EXTENSION OF PREMISES. Mr. Geo. Hynds, the Acton watchmaker, finding that his increasing business would warrant the change, has extended his quarters in the Post Office store to about twice their former dimensions. He has purchased a beautiful silver-mounted show case with which to show his goods to better advantage. Watches, clocks, jewelry and an immense stock of Christmas goods have been added to his already large stock. Friend Hynds, we wish you success.

CAFÉ SOCIAL. A goodly number of persons attended the coffee social, held under the auspices of the Methodist Church Choir, in the Temperance Hall, last Friday evening. Games and amusements were indulged in for about two hours, after which order was called, and the programme commenced by the choir singing an anthem in splendid style. Rev. R. Hobbs, chairman, gave a short address and was followed by an instrumental piece, skillfully rendered by Mr. Chas. Carter. "Gathering up the shells from the shore," was well sung by Messrs. C. Hill and A. Matthews, and Misses Watson and McNair. A capital reading, "The Old Church organ," by Miss Fanny Christie, was well appreciated, as also was "House of God" by the choir. An instrumental piece by Mr. C. Carter, was given in exquisite style; Misses Christie and McNair following in the duet, "What are the wild ways of the world," splendidly delivered. "The Editor's Guests" by Mr. T. A. Moore, was received with loud applause. The choir sang an anthem, and so ended as pleasant a social as has been held in Acton for some time past.

Mr. Horthkumurochrd Berg, called on us the other day and explained about the Municipal Election as follows:—Pupuyvnohohj Rcomclhu Phraj Tackumsj Lhhk.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. A meeting of the creditors of Benjamin Williams, of Glen Williams, an insolvent, was held on Monday, 10th inst., at the office of Mr. D. W. Campbell, official assignee, Milton. The only business transacted was the appointment of Mr. John Smith, of Guelph, as assignee; Mr. Finlay, agent of the Bank of Montreal, Guelph, and Mr. W. H. Storey, Acton, as inspectors. The meeting adjourned to meet at the office of the assignee in Guelph, on Monday, 17th inst., at 2 o'clock. We understand the liabilities of the insolvent to be about $35,000, assets about $42,000.

Any person wishing to make a splendid Christmas present to their friends, should call at Hill's Photograph Gallery, and have a large portrait made.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. ACTON PLANING MILLS. D. W. CAMPBELL, Prop. Having purchased the above named establishment, I am prepared to manufacture SASH, DOORS, MOULDINGS, &c. All kinds of PLANING Promptly attended to. D. W. CAMPBELL. Acton, Dec. 4th, 1877.

Blast Number One. PHOENIX LIKE UP AGAIN.

Your humble servant, the subscriber, having seen that there is a good opening for a first-class Dry Goods Store in his old home (the Village of Acton), has decided to open out in the New Brick Store, and his stock will be new and complete in its several departments of Ladies' Dress Wear and General Dry Goods. He has also secured the services of one of the best Milliners in the Province and hopes this will be no transient affair.

He expects to be ready on the 15th of this month and has no doubt that he will meet once again his old and tried friends of Esquesing, Nassagaweya, Erin and Acton, and is equally confident they will be satisfied with the quality and prices of his goods. And, as he intends to do business on a strictly cash basis, there will be no bad debts to be added to the cost of goods to his friends.

Produce of all kinds taken at the highest market prices. Further particulars will be given in Blast No. 2. Very truly yours, JAMES SYMON.

Acton, December 5, 1877.
