The entertainment given in the

Temperance Hall, under the auspices of St. Alban's (English) Church, Acton, on Tuesday evening, was a great success. Tea was served from 7.30 o'clock; during the serving of which various games and amusements were indulged in by those who could not secure seat at the table. The tables were good things, and reflected credit on the ladies who had charge of that department, After tea number of scenes, were shown on a canvas which afforded unbounded amusement to the little folks. The tree fairly groaned under weight of toys, etc., which Santi Claus had hong on, and it seeme that he had been very liberal with his presents this year. It was lit up with numerous wax candles, which gave it a splendid appearance, and showed off the articles to allvantage. After all the presents were distributed from the tree, the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Lee, was made the recipien of a beautiful eight day clock an bracket, from the members of the congregation. Mr. Lee thanked them for their present, after which the meeting broke up, and all went home satisfied that they had spent a most enjoyable evening. We
