—Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow.
—Acton Public Schools opened Monday.
—Paint drags, dye stuffs, &c., at J. E. McGarvin's.
—Try C. W. Hill for a stylish photograph.
—Don't fail to try J. E. McGarvin's worm powders.
—Who lost her heart at the skating rink, Monday evening?
—Stationery, Ink, Staples, etc., at J. E. McGarvin's.
—Mr. Chester Hill has returned to Acton. He looks well.
—Buy your Lamp Chimneys at G. E. Morow's Drug Store.
—Great excitement prevailed in town yesterday over the school trustee election.
—If you have anything to sell, invite buyers through the columns of the FREE PRESS.

The Acton Public Schools held on Wednesday afternoon, in account of the S. S. Convention.
—This being the week of prayer, meetings are held every evening in the Presbyterian Church.

C. W. Hill is turning out some nice photos now. You should call and see them.

A nice thing to have at this time of the year is a receipt for a year's subscription to the Acton Free Press.

If you want to get the best of drugs go to the Medical Hall, Acton.

We have a large quantity of waste paper on hand, suitable for wrapping purposes, which we will sell cheap.

We have for sale one of Beatty's celebrated pianos, which will be deposited at a great bargain. For particulars apply at this office.

You can get all the leading pianos in the market at G. E. Morris' Drug Store.

It is estimated that about $400 changed hands Monday, over the elections in this village.

—Inquiring Agricultural Society meets in Stewartsburg, today. So does Nassawaya Society, Brookville.

Mr. John Scord is removing to the store formerly occupied by Mr. G. M. Scott, where he will open a new store next week.

Mr. H. McDearmid, of Toronto, will be present at the Diptical meeting house, Acton, next Friday day, at 11 o'clock, a.m.

Mr. S. Dilts, of the Georgetown Herald, is prepared to receive congratulations. Miss Bertha Headley, of Caster, Co. of Lincoln, is the happy bride.

Mr. Alex. Secord, who has been employed at Matthews' store for some time past, has accepted a position as traveler for Storey & Co., glove manufacturers. This makes two travellers for that firm.

Here is a model for composers of odes on "the beautiful." Its chief merit is its brevity:
Soft and light,
Pure and white!
On the ground
Not a sound!
Now we know
It is snow!

The annual missionary meeting will be held in St. Albans Church, on Monday evening, Jan. 14. The deputation appointed to present consists of the Rev. Canon Worrell, of Oakville, the Rev. H. L. Y. Ovens, of Elora, and Thos. Nixon, of Milton. A collection will be taken up in behalf of the Canadian Missionary Diocese of Algoma.

PROSPECTUS.—The Georgetown hotels are doing a lively business.—Milton Champion. No doubt they do when the editor of the Champion is in Georgetown.—Acton Free Press. We'll send him up to Acton, as soon as we can spare his services here. Times are pretty dull just now.—Milton News. We do not require his services here, as the editor of the News gives us no occasional call.

RUNAWAY.—On Monday evening last, a young man hired a horse from a livery stable in town, drove to one of the hotels and tied the horse to a post. Some mischievous girls untied the horse in order to have a drive before the young man was ready. While turning a corner the cutter upset, throwing out the girls.—A horse felt like running, so it went at a high rate of speed until it reached Tolson's Mills, a distance of about two miles, where it was stopped and stabled. The rig was returned next morning. Neither the cutter nor girls sustained any injury.

At the regular meeting of Acton Lodge, No. 204, I. O. O. F., on Friday evening last, the following officers were installed by Bro. J. Window, D.D.G.M., assisted by Bro. W. Sunday, D.D.G.M., and Bro. A. Lammond and Wright.
