THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

Yolume III. No.37 - Whole No. 142

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1878.

$1.00 per annum im Advanc.

THE ACTON PRESS Is Published EVERY THURSDAY MORNING,

Free Press Building,

TERMS, - Dre dollar a year, strictly to advance. If not paid is forethree mentles ages will be sent to any herson more nan ohe year unpaid. R cras or arventising - Eight cents or harder first insertion, and two conts por ine for each subsequent insertion, saort alvertisements of eight line-und ander, $1 for three insertions. Business Cards of eight lines and under, $1 p.1

A fvertisements without special instruc-tions inserted till forbid, and charged Any Special Notice, the object of which any individuel or company, to be considered an advertisement.

Tranfigut advertisements to be pain for when entered. All advestising necessits Notices of Births Marriages and Deaths inserted free. MOORE & GALBRAITH. T. A. MOOTE, S. W. GALBRAITH.

BUSINESS CARDS. H. LOWRY, M. B., H.

Variotica Street, Acres, in the lately occupied by R. Little, Est. DR. R. MORROW. - Physi- Seaside Libraries, egs, New York, aspulladuate of Victoria Tuesdays and Fridays Strom 2 a. m. 1914 ; b. m. Bestlinge-West Bower street.

HENDERSON. Convey-

D. MATHESON, Attorney reported Main and Cauren

TT W. COOPER.

Provincial Land Surveyor and Civil Engineer, Guelph. Orlers by mind promptly attended to. THE LAIDLAW, Barrister.

HENRY LORANE.

INSURANCE AGENT, GULLPH. gent for the M rount leand Water! altress-115 this paper Post Post office will exceive by quiptatteraping.

DATENTS for INVENTIONS Plant zatrone 1 or no control oficial timescaling. Agency more tion ten years. HENRY GLIST. Meadaniest Hazinear, Satistian of P. tents and Draughtsman.

OLIVER LOZIER. Plasterer. Plastering and Rough-casting donhe in hit reasonable terms, and sail-lin

DOSSIN HOUSE, Acton. Excellent accomes viation for the travel ting pablic. THOS, CAMPBELL, Privi DOMINION HOTEL, ACI style with new furniture. Commercial at 1 commolious Sample Rooms, Specia stiention paid to the wants of the travelling paulte. Bar supplie' with the best Ligars and Cigars. Good Stabiling and

WM. HEMSTREET, Licensed Auctioneer

For the Countles of Wellington and Halton. Orders left at the PREE PRES Office, Acton, or at my residence, in Rockwood, will be promptly attended to.

F. TROLLOPE CHAPMAN, Practical Bookbinder. All Descriptions of Binding procured a maticent HEARSE. | corps and throw away my liberty Neatly Executed.

Account Books of all Kinds Made to Ruling Promptly Attended to.

BINDERY-St. George's Square, Greph

LE Orders leftat the FREE PRESS Office will, receive prompt attention.

ACTON. and modern furniture of the best des- ment is fully ranted for six years

Acton, June 26, 1877.

CTON BARERY.

West End Pokstore. GUELFH,

BOOKS & STATIONERY

Fireside Libraries, Boy's Libraries, N. Y Libraries.

THE ONTARIO

to secure a good set.

Acton; Jan. 7, 1878.

and all the Latet Aprels. Jewel of a Girl, Young Musgrave, he,

SADDLERY

ACTON-

LEARIN

( Tashus Rapid, Gele Writing)

Phone wishinto learn

would do well address

Mail rangelly at-

BRIDE.

By W. J. MORGAN. Buy your Harness at 16 Onfario Sid-liery, where you go the worth A splendid lot of NE COLLARS All parties intereng to purbefore the rush commentes in order lessen in the smallest degree,

THE DAY BEFORE.

TAKIGIAFY SHORTHAND my family solicitors, a drive in place a sad wilderness-it will be most miserable night of my wretchfternoon park en my old regiment's an occupation and amusement to ed after-life-but I anticipate. I drug, dlinner with my uncle, Ser you both to get it into order." a fool to sell out of a crack cavalry hearts, I believe, they all envied as if I was robbing you. You belle of the season. Such was to uncle."

Where the wise man's a pupil, As well as the fool. Vhere all must be learners From cradle to gravelown and Philosopher, Parson and knave.

oning heads are giddy, And young hearts are warm, and make many blunders, For Age to reform. let young heads are ready

They live in the present, And their future is bright. Although they differ As heat does from cold. at old heads from young may learn, As young heads from old.

The young I would caution :-Be not everwise When your elders in trouble, Would have you advise.

What your able to teach : Be patient in listening, And modest in speech. The old who know little, lest in trying to teach, They only mislead. To the old who have wisdom Tis needless to say, The grass must be seasoned Before it is hay. Let your truths be well studied Then plainly expressed, and not in the garments €n pedantry, dressed.

et no word of falsehood E'er fall from your tongue, And all shall be bettered - . The old and the young.

A TRAP FOR A YOUNG

The following is a true story It was teld me on board the good night off Cape Horn by a fellow- boy; I shall be glad of a little birth, but her father, who had died passenger who perished with the ill-fated "London" not many the bye, it is customary, is it not, actually been rector of Colebrooke sion its thrilling and tragic inci- usual impression which a lapse of years verse-we were the givers-cake added to which she lost her health has failed to obliterate or even some of you youngsters are now, my throat as I tried to say "how ere the gong summoned us to a or I should not be the hale man I shocking !" I could not utter a am. One night I went with a word. More than a minute's pain-ten, to see the debut of a young actress, reported to be of extraordinary beauty. The play was The Gamester; but, in delineating the misery of the gambler's unfortunate wife, the debutante failed to please her critical andience, and was not applauded. She had mistaken her "The wine stands with you, profession. Her beauty, which Harry," said my uncle. "Why, was really marvellous, did not atone bless the boy, he is so taken up for her bad acting. It seemed with his future bride that he for- cruel; it raised pity in one heart, at least, in that crowded pit. "A thousand pardons," said I, went behind the scenes; I sought retilling my glass; "but, to tell to comfort the weeping beauty by that Alice Temple, such was her more of your company; and, by- two years previously of decline, had

I had seen little Alice at the rec-Mrs. Temple after her husband's her mother to her native country. from the dissipations and racket of portions of her sylphlike figure, glistened in his eyes, but, brushing the breakfast; our healths were told.

how well the little black velvet hat, them hastily away, my uncle filled drunk, and then our guests left He Didn't Want the 'Scripwith its white ostrich plume, become his glass, saying, "Here, Harry, is her-how perfectly she managed your good health and your fiancee's, spent a happy enough afternoon,

That ride, like all happiness, came seas, and Pitt, Burke and Sheridan delay. Inwardly anathematising sadly inquired the aged inebriate. my name on various parchments. sauntered down Fop's Alley. I ten minutes. How that scene is you called it __ 'scription ?' ly polite, and insisted on opening a many well-known belies of the see her now sweep gracefully from tor wrote out a prescription blank, but to be so, both publicly and bottle of rare old port (I found day; how among my friends and the room, kissing her hand to me calling for so many-ounces of privately.-Plato. some hours later), in which to acquaintances I numbered such as she reached the door, and play- spiritus frumenti. He filled a The third finger was originally. drink our future happiness. I next men as the Regent, Lord Byron, fully remarking, "I hope the snug looking bottle with the article, chosen for wearing the wedding. occupied the seat of honor on the and many other celebrities; but constable has not come to carry pasted a label on it numbered to ring for the reason that it is not drag of the -th Hussars, duly this is not to the point. I was then, you off to prison-it would be too correspond with the paper, and only used less, but is more capable presented myself at my uncle's just your age-a young Baronet bad to separate us so soon!" I see presenting the bottle to the vener- of preserving a ring from bruiseshouse in Park Lane, and was with a large-rent roll, and an ex- her last loving smile as she disap- able roysterer, remarked, in the having this one quality peculiar to ushered into the drawing room by travagant turn of mind. With peared from the room—yes, Harry, most business like way imaginable: itself, that it cannot be extended neither father nor mother to con- her last, "I never saw her more!" \ A dollar and a half, sir." yet I suppose I was not so fast as felt, too, a choking sensation in that pretty high, mister?

> The new Pope has assumed the title of Pope Leo XIII., and we are led to inquire after his predecessors who have borne the name

> Pope Leo I., called also "The Great," was a Tuscan, and occupied St. Peter's chair from A. D. 440 to from 847 to 855. He was an

Leo VII., reigned three years from 936 to 939. Leo VIII. had an unsettled and brief reign of two years, from 963

Leo IX was a German, and reigned five years, 1049 to 1054. be famous because of his powerful

His honors faded in a single month. to Russia is nothing, and 400,000 a bottle. Leo XII., a native of Papal Italy, was Pope from 1823 to

The first four Leosand the ninth have been accorded canonical nones It is somewhat astorishing that Leo X. escaped this infliction, in view of his eminent services during | the most trying period of the Romish Supremacy.

the Leos reigned twenty-one years two one year, and two one month

Being a Boy.

In that delightful book, " Being thin as it comes -as to pie, for in- 'I wish to know if you had tist Caurch at Grand Rapids, "Of course all my friends warn- stance. Some people do make sufficient cause or provocation, Mich, a few Sandays ago, a five you got any good wlliskey?" 'Yes, sir,' replied the gentlemanly druggist. Gimmo half a pint

'Can't sell it, then, sir. Jury in session : must be strict." Where can I get a doctor ? [-] 'I am a physician, sir,' whining- this alone remains unshaken, that ly responded the druggist.

'Well, I might.' And the doc- out to study not to appear good his astonished customer. Ain't may be singly stretched out to coat pocket, 'I guess, boss, that I tempt to make a good impression, don't want the 'scription. Here's a favorable appearance, will vitiate

Napoleon's Prophecy.

Napoleon, the Great, when at St. Helena, spoke as follows to Dr. taken for.' People are egregious-

Russia will have Constantinople, by hypocrisy, by mere outside upand the greater part of Turkey and pearances, and by disguising not Grecce. This I hold to be as cer- only their language but their looks. tain as if it had already taken place. True popularity takes deep root In the natural course of things in and spreads itself wide, but the a few years Turkey must fall to false falls away like blessoms; for Russia. The greatest part of her nothing that is false can be lasting. population are Greeks, you may say Russians. The Powers it would injure and who could oppose it, are England, France, Prussia and Austrial Now, as to Austria, it will avail. France, England and Prus- the boys to destruction. Cossacks, and England loses India. Above all other powers Russia is to be feared especially by England. Her soldiers are braver than the Austrians, and she has the means was a lover of conviviality, which tacking England with effect, de- she concluded by saying :taching Ireland from her, captur- | "Ah, Bonnel, Bonnel! I sce ing her Indian possessions or a des- plainly that you'll shorten your cent on her coast." That Fetched Him.

loafer, but that wasn't it."

brought into court on a charge o assault and battery, preferred by 'She called me a worthless, lazy

'She said our whole famil

'What was it, then?'

'I guess I had, Judge. She up to the pulpit, and stood beside

What then?

The man whose mind and bands students in the world are the old men who know the most. Habits influence the character is not the less important because

Among so many - arguments while others - baye been with we ought to beware of committing 'Can't you give me that what injustice rather than of being injured, and that, above all, a man

their full length and straightness. 'It's our price-a dollar for the | Character is always known prescription and tifty cents for the Thefts never enrich; alms never impoverish; murder will speak out --'Yes, well,' slowly replied the of stone walls. The least admixwicked old duffer, as he slowly but- ture of a lie-for example, the least toned up the half pint in his over- mixture of vanity, the least atyour half a dollar,' and he stuck the effect; but speak the truth his tongue in one side of his mouth, and all nature and all spirits help

If you have a son, keep him, if dia of 90,000 good soldiers, which there is a boy, there should never be Bonnel Thornton, like most wits,

" Very true, madam, replied he but by the same rule you must ad-

In the third precinct a policem an arrest for the "weary." A Georgia negro who failed to put in an appearance until a week after the day set for his wedling, explained that he and his brother had only one good suit of clothes between them, and that as his bro-rounding neighbood that he has And is prepared attend and conduct Funerals one shortest notice and most moder terms.

S. W.ALBERGITH,

Caskets, Coffi Burial Robes, And all kinds Funeral Furnish ings keptin sk, and supplied on the stest notice. Hat Bands and wes supplied when required.

Acton, Feb. 1677.

OHN SPEIGHT.

THE ROYAL EXCHANGE Can bifirst-class PIANOS IEL FLATTY, Washing ington, New ley.

We are, all of us, teachers,

SOME LESSONS FOR TEACHERS

And the world is a school

And willing to learn : and young hearts but seldom Good counsellors spurn,

While old heads look backward To days that are fled, And take rules for the living From the dust of the dead

Young heads look forwart, The dead past is night ;

le glad to impart

And talk much should heed

ship "Lincolnshipe" one rough "Then don't you go either, my name, was not only a lady by mouths afterwards. I fear, how on these occasions to give the bride parish. Often and often, as a boy, but feebly convey the deep impres | I replied that it certainly was tory, which was in my own gift. dents made upon my mind-an

"Tis but another anxious night."would see me ranked among the less for its intrinsic value than for to the widow during her life. I tyrs, as my uncle, the most invete- I examined the ring, an old-fashion- nephew; and Alice, saved from a rate of bachelors, would have it ed whole hoop of emeralds and theatrical existence, accompanied Then I felt half credulous, half in- diamonds. clined to believe him; now I know it is all nonsense (I speak as a ornamental, perlaps, but more solid I saw Alice I admired her more seven offive branches round my "You know, Harry, you are my make her Ludy Colebrooke. Away table). The married state is the heir?"

brother officers, who all called me gentleman.

and leave them to my eldest boy "Than yours, uncle? I never view that portrait, wait till you ginner. He takes the thick and fearful temper, your honor." just passed for Sandhurst. The knew till now you had been mar- hear the end. coat that fitted me so faultlessly ried." then would not now button round "I was, indeed, though my ex- ed me not to marry an actress; of them very thin." my waist by six inches-out upon perience of wedded bliss is very course I would not be convinced. time! I think I see Adolphe put short. The tale is long ago forgot. What lover ever yet listened to

I had hardly time to apologize done to the inventive faculties of the chef de cuisine. PART II. WOOED AND MARRIED AND A'.

" In the forest's shade Our vows were plighted."- the truth, I was thinking it was assuring her that the same mishap high time I was off to Covent Gar | befel the great Siddons. I went den, though, indeed, Annie told home that night, for the first time me, it was not likely she would in my life, in love. I discovered

"In my day it was quite the re- death, was left almost penniless and gloves to all our friends; how- and it was to support her sick ever, I ordered this little ring to be mother that Alice, much against made by Storr and Mortimer; it is her will, had gone on the stage, the exact copy of a ring I once gave and-failed! Morally, I felt guilty to 965. to another bride." (My uncle of their misfortunes and I hastenighed deeply.) "Give it to your ed to make amends for my criminal It was my last day of single Annie with my love and blessing." negligence. I gave a pretty cottage, blessedness! To-morrow, ere noon, "I am sure she will prize it, no close to Colebrooke Hall, rent free

"And I have something less I soon followed. Every day that veteran of nineteen years, with for you," continued my relative, and more. I resolved that I would right one; it halves our griefs and "Unless, uncle, you took it into town life, I spent, then, the few doubles our joys. Such is my ex your head to follow my example." | happy days of my life in the society perience, whatever selfish bachelors . "There is not the slightest chance of the loveliest and best of beings, or prevish old maids may say to of that," he replied, in almost a who seemingly loved me as much the contrary. To return-it was stern tone of voice, "if you will as I adored her. I say seemingly, the day before our wedding, and I let me finish without interruption; for the sequel will show how bitterhad plenty to do; how to get I was saying you are my sole heir; ly I was mistaken. It was in the through it all, even during a long you are going to my country seat fir-woods above the house that I June day, seemed a puzzle. Im for your honeymoon. Knowing spent the happiest day of my life, primis -- morning, Park with my your love for the country, I have the day she accepted me, and vow-Metothed, her last canter as Annie made over Colebrooke Hall to you ed that she had no other attach Beltravers, luncheon at her father's now by deed of gift contained in ment to any but me. It was in house, a visit east of Temple Bar this envelope. You will find the these same woods that I passed the

"And you have realized it."

her steed! What castles in the and may your, future be as bright wandering over the house and hir we built "that sunny morn in | and happy as my past has been grounds, and talking about the Rotten Row!" What matter that | dark and miserable! If you will alterations and improvements we still unrealized! That I have patience with an old man's would make. The bright July um not Prime Minister, nor Viceroy digressions, I will tell you my life's day wore away-dinner time came of India, but a plain country story. During the few years I (we dined at six o'clock in those gentleman, keeping a pack of may yet have to live, you will redays). It was while we were bounds for the amusement of my peat it to no one, your wife, of course, excepted; when I am gone, sitting over our dessert that Bennett (then footman) came to tellows, and striving, with Annie's you may publish it to the world.

'In the stirring times when George from Hereford was in the hall, and sters in the way they should go — III. was King, when Napoleon mo easy matter in these railroad Bonaparte. was deluging Europe times. But I am growing tedious. with blood, when Nelson swept the was urgent and a mitted of no to an end; that luncheon was dis- shook the Senate with their won- the man's ill-timed visit, I told cussed, and I drove to Messia drous eloquence, I was as gay a Alice to amuse herself in the draw-Surefast and Vellum, and inscribed young fellow about town as ever ing-room and I would rejoin her in

The senior partner was marvellous could tell you how I flirted with imprinted upon my memory. I "Just twenty minutes late, test me, I led a life of pleasure, My uncle paused-I saw the big Harry," said Sir John, consulting riding hard, drinking hard; and tears rolling down his cheeks-I my readers must be content to friend, whose name I have forgot ful silence intervened before my relative commenced anew.

(To be Continued.) The Romish Leos.

Leo II. was a Roman. He died

the next year after his election which occurred A. D. 682. Leo III., a Roman, reigned twenty-one years. A. D. 795 to Leo IV. occupied the Holy See Leo V. the "unfortunate Leo, reigned one month and was then banished. This occurred in 903. He was a native of Ardea. Leo V1., a Roman, was Pope for noble army of Benedicts, or mar- its being your gift," I remarked, as presented the vacant living to her the Pontifeed release from 1812 to the Pontifical robes from 1543 to 1521. He was a native of Flor-Leo XI., also a Florentine, acceded to the Popedom in 1605.

It will be noticed that two of

look back upon those few weeks as a Boy," Mr. Charles Dudley John Colebrocke, whose favorite to How can I ever thank you the one ray of real sunshine that Warner gives such touches as this neplew and heir presumptive I sufficiently?" I said, ss I took the has illuminated a long, dark day. to the common places of life :-The opera-and, as a grand degli from my uncle's hand. "It Together we roamed over the lovely "His elders say that the boy is finale, a farewell supper to my late les been my dream to be a country country during the bright months always hungry : but that is a very of June and July. I got Sir coarse way of putting it. He has his wife, his Honor asked him why Thomas Lawrence to paint her only recently come into a world he struck her. "Annie, too, I know, is of the portrait. You will see it in the that is full of good things to eat. at five and twenty, whilst in their same mind; but, positively, I feel drawing-room, and judge by that and there is, on the whole, a very feeble reflection if I have exagger | short time in which to eat them my good fortune in winning the must promise to be our first guest, ated her charms. I require no at least he is told; among the first picture-her face is engraved in my information he receives, that life is | weren't fit for fish bait, but I didn' be the order of the day, and I has- "Never, never do I wish to set mind; that luxuriant hair, those brief. Life being brief, and pie get mad at that." tened to get myself up. under the my eyes on the place again. May deep, violet eyes, those pearly teeth! and the like fleeting, he very soon surveillance of my French valet. it prove a bappier home to you Hers was a beauty almost super- decides, on an active campaign, It What pains I bestowed on my than it has been to me-may your [natural. Sometimes I have thought may be an oll story to people who nose, and said I was too lazy to toilet-engaged men always do | commencement of married life there she was not mortal. I see your have been eating for forty or fifty die, but I know'd she was excited there was off preaching he had to Now I have done with such follies be more auspicious than mine was." smile of incredulity—wait till you years, but it is different with a be- and I let that pass. She's got

Young men who visit their came close up and spit in my face, Dr. Graves, the pastor, who inting the last finishing touches to ten. During my voluntary exile advice? I married her. The knot girls in this deplorable age of slang and said I was meaner than pizen, quired, What do you want, my This well-known house has recently States. WhyBecause he sells my hair, adjusting the exotic flower from England of so many years, the was tied in Colebrook Church. It should be careful to speak distinct but I didn't mind that. andergone a thorough renovating and only for cash, es no risks and has in my button bole, dusting every friends of my youth dropped away. was a quiet affair, very unlike ly. A few evening since as a Mill repairing, is now furnished with new no book acces. Every instru- speck off my boots. I think I see I, who would have gladly have what yours will be to morrow. A Street clerk was about to bid his and modern furniture of the best desand modern furniture of the best deseription, and is prepared to provide first-class accommodation to the provide form. The deriversent prepared to provide form of the days' test trial.

The deriversent prepared to provide form of the best desment is fully ranted for six years my best man.

Sweetheart good-bye for a few days, and whistled 'Hold the Fort,' and the child drank it and left the platemy faithful old servant, Bennett, bis emotion nearly mastering him, I was bearing and bearing with form. The incident created much few recollect the tetrible mystery days test trial. on from 5 to days' test trial, orea, many onto, and spectring and bearing with form. The incident created much bearing and freight paid towards Grosvenor-square. There few recollect the terrible mystery daughter, two fresh looking girls, he began in an unintelligible voice her, when she turned round and amusement among the congregalicense, and he will keep the bar well supplied with the very best of liquors and cigars. The stabiling is large and cigars are cigars. and cigars. The stabling is large and lactory. The ceremony over, lime to the ridiculous by exclaim onter his head. That fetched me. the people were laughing at some well-nitted up; also emple shed-room. | venture of the head. That fetched me. the people were laughing at some The patronage of the public is respect. ead testimon from his patrons, me. How well the tight-fitting that day when the secrets of all we drove to the house, where a ling in a loud voice, "What'd yer Judge, if there had been forty lions mistake of his, he made a bow to some of whonu may know. Adhabit showed off the delicate prolearns a loud voice, "What'd yer Judge, if there had been forty lions mistake of his, he made a bow to me. How went the tight-fitting blint day when the pastor, and said, 'Thank you, JOHN MANEY. dress DANIE. BEATTY, Wash.

Now it is a loud voice, "What'd yer Judge, if there had been forty lions mistake of his, he made a bow to habit showed off the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you, learns party of eight sat down to habit showed off the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you, learns party of eight sat down to healths were learned in his eyes, but brushing the breakfast: our healths were learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you, learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you,
learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." Thank you, learned to the delicate prohearts shall be revealed." The delicate prohearts shall Pearls of Truth. He was an old man, and he had are busy finds no time to weep and a bit of conductor's pasteboard wail. If work is slack spend the stuck in his hat. He walked into time in reading. No man ever the drugstore and enquired: 'Have knew too much. The hardest pretty much as undercurrents influ-Have you got a doctor's pre- ende a vessel, and whether they speed us on the way of our wishes, or retard our progress, their claret

but in company with some some A dollar and a half! gasped other finger, whereas the others winked ironically at him out of the you with unexpected furtherance.

mortar and peftle, and walked out. - Emerson It was finally said by Socrates that the shortest and most direct road to popularity is ' for a man to be the same as he wishes to be ly mistaken if they think they can "In the course of a few years ever attain to permanent popularity

Total Abstinence at Home be very easy for Russia to engage you can, from ever touching a glass her assistance by giving her Servia of wine. It is the ready excuse of and other provinces bordering on many a young lad for taking a glass the Austrian Dominion, reaching pof champagne - " We always have near to Constantinople. The only it at home." The decanter at hypothesis that England and France ) home kindles the appetite which will ever be allied with sincerity soon seeks the drinking saloon. will be in order to prevent this. The thoughtless or reckless parent

But even this alliance will not gives the fatal push which sends Leo X., whose name will always sia cannot effect it, and once mis Long labor in the temperance retress of Constantinople, Russia gets form has convinced me that the ranean, becomes a great naval, is at home. There is the spot power, and God knows what may where the mischief too often is happen. She will quarrel with done. Let it be written upon the England, march off an army to In- | walls of every house - Wherever

Lengthening His Nights. of raising as many as she pleases. frequently led him to spend the A hundred years hence I shall be whole night in company and the applauded for my efforts to re-es- next morning in bed. On one of tablish the Kingdom of Poland, and these occasions an old female rela-Europe, especially England, will tion, baving waited on him before lament that I did not succeed. he had arisen, began to read a fa-There are only three ways of at- miliar lecture on prudence, which > mit that I shall lengther my arrested a man who tried to explain that he was only "weary." The policeman explained that there is little man ? ' A glass, of water. the child replied. The minister 'I know'd her temper, and I sot i poured out a glass of water, and

During the sermon in the Bipyear old child left its seat, walked