Service in the Methodist Church every Sabbath evening, at half-past six o'clock; and both morning and evening on the first Sabbath of each month. REV. R. HOBBS, Pastor.

LOCAL MATTERS.

—Wedding Rings, solid 18 carat plain Gold Rings; Ladies' Gold fancy Gem Rings. Wedding and Birthday Presents at Hynds' Jewelery Store. A splendid stock.

—Monthly Fair to-day.

—Seeds, Seeds, at McGarvin's.

—Flax Seed at Morrow's drug store.

—Trout fishing is all the go around here.

—The Ice Cream season is now open. Call on C. W. Hill.

—J. E. McGarvin's drug store is the best place to buy good reliable goods.

—There is some talk of having our streets watered every day, to lay the dust.

—Mr. F. G. Widdows passed through Acton, on the G.T.R. on Monday evening.

—No business of any importance was transacted at the meeting of the School Board, Monday evening.

—Dye Stuffs of all kinds at G. E. Morrow's drug store.

—Rev. Mr. Hobbs went to St. Thomas, on Monday, to attend the Canada Methodist conference.

—C. W. Hill can supply Pure Ice Cream to parties in any quantity, on short notice.

—Go to G. E. Morrow's for Garden Seeds.

—The members of the St. George Church, Georgetown, are advertising for tenders for the erection of a new stone church.

—Mr. Angus Cameron, of this village, killed a snake on Monday, on the 4th line Esquesing. It was three feet eleven inches long.

—The sitting of the Court of Revision for the Village of Acton will be held at Matthews' Hall, next Monday evening, at 7-30 o'clock.

—What has become of our Glenwilliams and Norval correspondents—Milk a Week. No doubt they have become disgusted with the paper.

—Why talk about Protection when you can buy Christie, Henderson & Co's famous 5.0 Tea for 40c in 5 lb lots? Who would want it any cheaper?

—A car load of house furniture just to hand at Regent Hall, Acton. New styles selling at a bargain. The rush for clothing still continues. J. Hurst.

—On Tuesday evening Mr. Geo. Elliott, lot 25, con. 2, Esquesing, called at this office and left us a few stalks of rye, which measured seven feet, eight inches in length.

—Last Monday morning, as Jno. Gardener, aged 15, an employee at Moore's shingle mills, Speyside, was removing some shingles from a cart, he accidently let a bunch fall on his right arm, almost breaking it. He was immediately brought to Acton, and Dr. McGarvin attended the injury.

—Ice Cream served up by the dish or quart at C. W. Hill's Parlor.

—We have received a copy of the Seattle, Washington Territory, Daily Intelligencer, containing a full account of the dreadful death of our townsfellow, Mr. Daniel McMaster. Not having room for it this week, we will publish it in our next issue.

—Busy, always busy, crowded from morning till night. Cheap goods, good goods, and good prices for produce. There is no doubt about who does the business of Acton. A visit to our shop at any time will testify to the fact. Christie, Henderson & Co.

—The rush to the Mammoth House still continues. Great bargains in all classes of goods, very cheap. The popular and unheard of cheap sale of Dress goods for 5, 10, 15, 20, 25c, worth three times the money. Black and colored Dress Silks at 50c, worth $100. Now is your chance for the bargains. McLeod Anderson & Co.

—Mr. F. J. Chadwick, the ex-Mayor of Guelph, went to Limehouse to fish last Saturday. He was fishing from a boat, and, in endeavoring to get on a log to reach out for one of the finny tribe, he lost his balance and fell into the water. He swam to the shore.

—Crewson's Corner's Division, Sons of Temperance, intend having a grand pic-nic on the afternoon of Wednesday June 12. It will be held on the farm of Mr. J. Butts, near the Corners. Music and all kinds of amusements will be provided. For particulars see posters.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY. — Having concluded to have a day of it on the 24th May, I went to Georgetown and visited McLeod, Anderson & Co.'s immense Dry Goods establishment, and there filled myself out with the necessary clothing and furnishings to make me comfortable and to enjoy the day thoroughly. They were busy. I ordered my suit of clothes and got my other fixings, and I am satisfied they were good and cheap, and I enjoyed the Queen's Birthday.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

—The barn of Mr. Nicholas Forbes of Crewson's Corners, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, loss $800; insurance $500. Incendiarism the cause.

—On the evening of Wednesday, 12th inst., an entertainment will be held in the Temperance Hall, Crewson's Corners. It will consist of readings, recitations, speeches, &c., and a lecture on "Manitoba" by the Rev. Mr. Campbell. For particulars see posters.

—Pure Honey at J. E. McGarvin's.

—Mr. Adam Winlow, who went to Manitoba a few weeks ago with a party of young men has returned to Acton. Not being able to procure any work there, he thought it would be best to return home. He says no one should go there with less than $1,000. Some of the other young men are expected home shortly.

—The Scholastic News for June contains an excellent cut of McGill University, Montreal, and also of the proposed Union Church and School House at Cote St. Luce. This journal is becoming deservedly popular, and is a paper which no one interested in education should be without. It is published monthly by Mr. Geo. Maynard, Montreal at $1.00 per year.

—Turnip Seed at McGarvin's.

—The Open Division held on Tuesday evening last, under the auspices of Acton Division, Sons of Temperance, was a success. The hall was filled to overflowing with an audience composed of members of Acton Division, Crewson's Corners' Division and Prospect Division, Nassagaweya, together with those in this vicinity who are interested in the temperance cause. The programme was good, and consisted of speeches, readings, recitations, vocal and instrumental music, etc. The meeting broke up about 10:30, everybody being well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

—The Halton checker players stopped the Guelph players in Georgetown on Tuesday evening. Only nine played on each side. The following is the score:

HALTON.	G.	P.	GUELPH.	G.	P.

BURGLARY.

"Regent Hall" Windows Minus $50 Worth of Goods.

Acton has always had the name of being a quiet and peaceable Village, but it has occasionally been the scene of some scoundrel's little game. The first robbery which has taken place here for some time past took place sometime during Monday night or Tuesday morning. It took place at Mr. Hurst's "Regent Hall," and we must say that it was rather a poor reception to give a new and enterprising business man, who has only been in our Village a little over a month. Mr. Hurst always kept his windows filled with the choicest and most fashionable goods of the season, and, no doubt, it seemed too much for some light fingered person to see such nice articles at his hand and not take some of them off. In order to get the things out of the window a pane of glass had to be broken, which was done. A large quantity of silk ties, shirts, suspenders, &c., were then taken out by the burglar, after which he made himself scarce. Mr. Hurst cannot tell exactly what the value of the goods taken would amount to, but he says that they cannot amount to less than $50. No clue of the burglar has been obtained, but it is to be hoped that he will be soon caught and brought to justice.

Still Another.

A Kit of Tools Taken.

On Tuesday evening some unknown person entered the cooper shop of Mr. John Coates and took a whole kit of cooper's tools away with him. The means of entrance was easy; the door of the shop not being locked. The tools belonged to the workmen, and were worth about $12. The whereabouts of the robber has not been ascertained.

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE ROBT. FISHER.

BY A KNIGHT OF PYTHIAS.

Brothers of chivalric tie,
Heed the weeping widow's sigh,
Hear the orphan's pleading cry—
Aid the faint and weak!
Now a comrade brave has gone,
And his friends are left alone,
Make their heartfelt grief your own—
Words of comfort speak.

He was noble, true, and brave;
As a Knight he freely gave
Time and means the cause to save
We all love so well.
Now, when he is laid to sleep
Where the tender ivies creep,
O'er his silent form we weep,
And his virtues tell.

He was taken from our band
Rudely by Death's cruel hand,
And alone as Knights we stand,
Hearts in anguish sore.
But we turn not from the trust
Left us by his fleeting dust,
And the orphan's woes we must
Soothe for evermore.

By our brother gone before,
By those blissful days of yore,
By the future joys in store,
This we pledge to do:
We will calm the widow's fears,
We will check the orphan's tears,
Watching them through future years,
Chivalric and true.

We will lead them through the night,
Till they see the dawn of light,
And Life's sunbeams, pure and bright,
Fall around their way.
This shall be our earnest vow,
As before his dust we bow;
Hearts may change, but we, as now
Knighthood's debt will pay.

By our hopes of Life's sky fair,
By the joys that soothe our care,
We will ever fondly share
Bliss with hearts so lone.
Then, when Time shall be no more,
And our Knighthood days are o'er,
We shall meet and part no more
With our brother gone.
