—Calanthe Lodge, K. of P., will nominate officers to-night. All members are requested to attend.

—A grand musical, literary and dramatic entertainment will be held in the Town Hall, Rockwood, on the 1st of July.

—One of our merchants came very near hurting himself by running against a wood-pile, one dark evening, last week.

—The election of officers in the Acton Lodge, I.O.O.F., will take place to-morrow night. All the members will please attend.

—$10.00 reward for any case of worms in the human system where J. E. McGarvin's Worm Powders will not effect a cure. Try them.

—Mr. Passmore, of Rockwood, is erecting a first-class store and post-office in that village. It will be ready for use in two or three weeks.

—Pure Paris Green and Helebore at J. E. McGarvin's.

—Mr. S. Bailey, of the "Cheap Cash Store," Rockwood, is doing a large business in groceries, boots and shoes. Call on him when you go to Rockwood.

—Mrs. Kent Mason Clayton, the well-known temperance lecturess, who visited Acton a short ago, and lectured in the Temperance Hall, has been divorced from her husband in Chicago recently.

—Excellent Scotch and Canadian Tweed Suits for $13 and $14 at Fyfe and McNab's.

—Mr. Morrow is having his drug store re-painted and renovated. He has just put in a beautiful silver-mounted show case, which, together with the painting, makes the store have altogether a better appearance.

—Acton Division, Sons of Temperance will have a Strawberry Festival on the evening of the 1st July, in the Temperance Hall. Admission, 25 cents, doors open at 7 o'clock. Strawberries served at 7:30. For further particulars see posters.

—We have received the advance sheets of the New Dominion Monthly for July, containing the Witness fifty dollar prize poem, and the five other poems which received honorable mention. The whole occupied twenty-three pages of the magazine.

—Clothes well made in the latest designs from reliable Tweeds at the East End Clothing Store. Fyfe & McNab.

—Acton FREE PRESS recommends a certain jeweler's wedding rings. Does he speak from experience?—Guelph Herald. It is an advertisement. Wonder if the the Herald man speaks from experience when he recommends children's clothing and "good old Scotch whiskey?"

—Now is the time to wash with J. E. McGarvin's five cent Toilet Soap.

—Mr. Thos. Swain, an old and highly respected citizen of Georgetown, died very suddenly at his residence on Friday evening, at the age of 82 years. Five minutes before death he was sitting chatting on the verandah. He went inside, lay on a lounge, and expired with scarcely a struggle.

—Keep cool; C. W. Hill's Ice Cream is highly recommended for excitable people.

—Doing business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl with green goggles on.—Ex. There is some little difficulty about this statement. In the first place, a man who doesn't advertise doesn't do any business to speak of, and pretty girls are not in the habit of wearing green goggles.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

—Miss Jennie Sharp, of Hamilton, formerly a resident of Acton, is in town at present on a visit to her friends.

NOTICE.—There will be no preaching in the Disciple Meeting House, Acton, next Lord's day, as the June Meeting will be held on that day at the Stone Meeting House, Erin Centre.

—On Monday evening at Hagersville, Mr. Joseph Calvert, a brother of the Rev. G. W. Calvert, late of this Village, was murdered by a man named Alfred Herd. Herd stabbed Calvert in the abdomen, causing death in a few minutes. The murderer escaped.

—Any parties wishing goods for 1st of July use, should purchase their supplies on Saturday, as all the merchants have agreed to close their doors on Dominion Day. We hope that no customers will be admitted through the side-doors, as on previous occasions, as it sometimes causes ill-feeling among the different merchants of the Village.

—Remember our Ordered Clothing Department, and we are still kept busy, which is proof positive of the desirableness of our Goods, of the cheapness of price and of the excellency of our cutting and fitting. An immense stock to choose from. Gents' Furnishings in large variety. McLeod, Anderson & Co., Georgetown.

—Mr. James Ryder has just built a beautiful bread wagon for Mr. Robert Galloway, of this Village. The rig is neat and of the latest design, and is a credit to the builder. The wagon cost $209. Mr. Galloway has now the most beautiful bread wagon in the Co. of Halton.

—Ice Cream at C. W. Hill's.

—A pretty and stylish young lady called in Storey's Glove Works, the other day, and requested to see some lavender kids of their own make. She was shown a variety of shades, but, unable to choose from so many different shades of color, she asked Fred. "which of these pairs are the lavenderest?" He hardly knew which.

—A grand celebration will take place in Rockwood, on Dominion Day. $100 will be given in prizes for games and amusements. A musical entertainment will take place in town hall, in the evening.

CLEARING SALE.—On the 2nd July we will commence a great clearing sale. The goods shall be marked down regardless of cost. This is a tight time for money, and as we have an immense stock, bargains will be given. Remember there will be special bargains and leading lines in dress goods, prints, cottons, sateens, millinery, mantles, parasols, ready made and other clothing, and a job lot of straw hats. They shall be sold at 15c and 25c worth $1.50. Ladies and gentlemen and everybody attend this sale and save money. McLeod, Anderson & Co.

—Wm. Foster, a tramp, was drunk and disorderly Tuesday evening, and was interviewed by the Reeve yesterday morning. He was found guilty, but had nothing to say why the sentence of the court should not be passed on him. The Reeve told him that Constable Forbes would escort him to Milton, where he could remain in the Queen's boarding house for 20 days.

—Mr. John Seeled, of the nobby grocery, was away in Toronto during three days of last week attending the great Trade Sale of Cramp Torrance, and W. J. Shaw & Co. Buyers were present from all parts of the country. Mr. Seeord made some large purchases of all kinds of groceries, teas, &c., at extraordinary low prices, and, as soon as the goods arrive will be able to do the Grocery and Tea business about here.

CORRECTION.—Mr. McCraney, M.P., requests us to state, with reference to the remarks concerning the Oakville furniture dealer, on 5th June, when he said, "Hay stated as his reason that he wanted to crush that dealer out of existence," he should have said, "the Oakville dealer stated that Hay wanted to crush him out of existence." With reference to the above we would state that the mistake might have been a misunderstanding on our part.

—Ice Cream at C. W. Hill's.

—During last week no less than eight robberies were committed in Georgetown. On Tuesday night Mr. Geo. Kennedy's residence was entered and goods to the value of $10 or $12 carried off. Mr. Bole's residence was entered the same night, but nothing was taken. On Wednesday night Mrs. Thompson's bake shop was entered and some cakes and $1 in coppers were taken. McLeod, Anderson & Co.'s store was entered the same night, and a suit of clothes taken. Austin's shoe store, McMaster's grocery store and Thayer's furniture warerooms were entered the same night, but nothing was taken. After midnight on Friday, the house of Mr. G. E. Morrow, druggist, was burglarized and $50 in cash taken from his pockets. No clue has yet been found as to the perpetrators of the robberies.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton

—Ice cream at C. W. Hill's.

—The Band boys were out on a serenading tour Monday night. Each of the players had a new torch attached to his hat, and they looked immense. The first person they serenaded was Mr. Isaac Francis, an old Band boy, and that gentleman wishes us to return his thanks to the boys for their consideration. They then marched down Mill street, serenaded the "Glasgow House," and also "Regent Hall," after which, feeling the want of refreshments they serenaded Mr. Edward Nicklin, who invited them in to have a feed of strawberries. The boys spent a most enjoyable evening at Mr. Nicklin's. Mr. J. C. Hurst, of "Regent Hall," with his usual liberality, added a two dollar bill to the funds of the band, in consideration of the serenade, for which the Band returns thanks.

—Our jack knife artist swears up-and-down and crosswise that he saw a great sight on Mill street, the other night, and he made a determined effort to draw a picture as the rig was passing, with the above result. We present it to our readers, and, no doubt, they will perceive that great care was observed in the execution of the picture. He at first intended to have it printed in the form of a chromo, but, by paying him the price of the four jack-knives he broke, in executing the picture, he decided to let the FREE PRESS have it. We are sorry to say that he had several of his fingers badly cut while performing on the block of wood, but, thanks to the prompt attention of Mr. J. E. McGarvin, he soon had them bound up, and is now entirely recovered.

"Josh Billings" (Henry W Shaw) is reported to have made more money than almost any American author by persistent working of his peculiar vein of humour. Some years he has got $4,000 from a weekly newspaper for his exclusive contributions; has made $5,000 or $6,000 by lecturing, and has had a profit from his almanac of $8,000 or $9,000 more—$18,000 to $20,000 per annum. That is five or six times as much as Emerson, Hawthorne Lowell or Holmes has ever made.
